

Dear Parishioners,

“What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or death...? Neither of them will separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Rom. 8:35,39)

You have proven this Word of the Lord to be true again. Despite the pandemic crisis, you have not separated yourselves from the love of God and our neighbors by your constant generosity to the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. It was amazing that we were able to meet the amount of $65,957.00 that was asked of us in our last year’s Annual Appeal. Truly our parish is blessed with generous parishioners.

This year, our parish is asked to contribute the amount of $65,192.00. As you can read in the enclosed brochure, the Archdiocese is in need of your financial support to attend to the pastoral needs of our people in the Archdiocese and the whole Universal Church. I hope that you won’t get tired in giving (Gal. 6:9), even in the midst of pandemic crisis. Let generosity continue to flourish in our parish and let us keep it as our tradition. You may drop or mail your contribution to our parish office or mail it directly to the Archdiocese.

Many of you had been contributing one percent (1%) or even more of the amount that is asked of us. I hope that you will consider this again. We missed treating you with an appreciation dinner last year, but rest assured that we will do it for you again once this pandemic crisis ends.

Thank you so much and may God bless your generous hearts. Please know that I am keeping you always in my prayers for your safety and good health.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Roland De la Rosa
Pastor
