PRECIOUS BLOOD

On this solemnity, we focus our attention on the Body and Blood of Christ. We listen to the story of the renewal of the old covenant, which Moses sealed by splashing the blood of animals on the altar of sacrifice, as well as on the people.

Jesus, whose blood is the blood of the new covenant, shed that precious blood on the cross, saving us from sin and promising us everlasting life. Blood is the life source that courses through our bodies. The precious blood of Christ is the life source for our spirits. Today, may we, like the psalmist, offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Lord, whose body and blood strengthens us to bring the Good News to everyone we meet.

Dear Friends,

Congratulations to Matiana Barrera and Melanie Gutierrez who received the Sacrament of Confirmation from Archbishop George Niederauer at St. Mary's Cathedral on Pentecost Sunday, May 31st. Thank you for hanging in there with our RCIA program and seeing it all the way through. Thanks, also, to Diana Powell, who is in charge of the RCIA program, on a job well done.

Last Sunday, our neighbor to the South of us, Father Rene Gomez, the former Pastor of St. Bruno's for 10 years, died. Please remember him in your prayers. Please also keep in your prayers Monsignor Bruce Dreier, the Pastor of St. Robert's, who has a terminal illness.

Also last Sunday, we had our first Traditional Latin Mass here. Over 200 people attended. It seems like everything went off without a hitch. The next Traditional Latin Mass will be celebrated on Sunday, July 5th, at 6:30 p.m. You might want to check it out.

Today after the 8:00 and 10:00 a.m. Masses, Couples for Christ, a group from St. Augustine's, is having a free Pancake Breakfast for everyone. This is their way of thanking us for using our facilities. This is the third breakfast that St. Augustine's has done for us. In my 4 years here as your Pastor, MD has hosted zero breakfasts. I long for the day when we will have enough volunteers to have our own breakfast and not need St. Augustine's to put one on for us. Thank you Couples for Christ! Thank you St. Augustine's!

Happy Corpus Christi Sunday!
Father Brian
