Dear Friends,

This past weekend was the weekend of Angies.

First off, thank you Angie Pasamba, Willie Pasamba, and the Hallelujah Chorale for a magnificent concert last Saturday night. Thank you Bettina Yap and Brian Dunleavy for “MCing”, as well as all the other behind the scenes people, who without them, this concert would not have taken place. We had over 400 people attend, including priests and parishioners from other parishes. Everyone did an outstanding job, but special mention must be made about Willie, Angie’s son, who really made his cello talk during the concert. Thank you, one and all, for an unforgettable evening of music and fellowship.

I also want to thank Jim and Angi Rodriguez and their crew for the great BBQ we had last Sunday. The food was delicious and everyone seemed to have a good time. While we didn’t have the numbers like the concert, the people who did come seemed to enjoy one another’s company. Thank you, Angie and friends. We’ll do it again in the fall.

Thank you, parishioners, for making our Second Collection last Sunday for our Parish Improvement Fund the largest ever. As I mentioned at Mass, we have some big bills coming up, due to maintaining our parish plant. A great people deserve a great place in which to worship. Thank you for responding to my call to “give a little bit more”. It really does make a difference. Please continue to give as your circumstances dictate.

Have a great week!

Father Brian

COURSE 101 - CHRISTIAN FOUNDATIONS

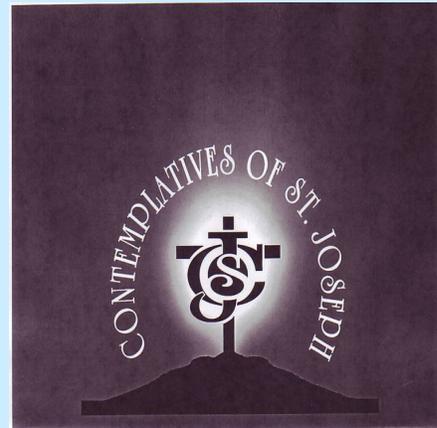

Join Father Joseph Richard for a six-week class introducing the argument and evidence for Christianity, and how it fills the needs of the human heart. THE CONTEMPLATIVES of SAINT JOSEPH

We are very happy and proud to announce that our convent building is now occupied by the community of the Contemplatives of St. Joseph. On May 30, 2008, Father Vito J. Perrone was given permission to explore the formation of a new men’s contemplative religious community here in the Archdiocese of San Francisco. This community will start simply as a Private Preparatory Religious Association, under the supervision and spiritual direction of Archbishop George Niederauer. Also, Bishop Bill Justice and an Advisory Council of priests and religious within the Archdiocese of San Francisco will assist in the guidance of this community.

The vision and vocation of the Contemplatives of St. Joseph will consist, first of all, in a life dedicated to contemplative prayer. Their active ministry will occupy them outside their cloistered residence eight days each month. They have established residency in our old convent building, and they will offer private and directed retreats for Archdiocesan priests, deacons and seminarians. They will also offer retreats and missions at parishes within the Archdiocese, as well as ‘Contemplative Prayer Academies’ for the laity. The community will engage in ecumenical dialogue, especially with Eastern Orthodox Christians, and will serve as a bridge home for Catholics who have left the Church, seeking contemplative depth in other religions.

It is hoped that, over time, this new men’s contemplative community will have a very positive influence on the spiritual life of the Church within the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Fr. Vito Perrone will facilitate four Days of Recollection here at Mater Dolorosa Church, as an all-day event, filled with Mass, prayer, talks, conferences, vespers and confession. The first date for this spiritual day is October 3, 2009. We welcome and pray for Father Perrone, the men who will enter, and those whom they will serve. We are thrilled to have his community with us at Mater Dolorosa!
