Farewell to Father Craig David

We say goodbye to Father David on June 30th who was with us during the summer months. Father David was instrumental in helping out with Masses and visits to those in need, while Father Roland was on vacation. We will miss him and his homilies! We thank him for his faithful service to Mater Dolorosa both while Father O'Donnell was our pastor, and these past months. May God bless him on his next assignment.

VISITING PRIEST FROM THE DIOCESE OF DIPHU

Next Sunday we will have Rev. Michael Eango, from the Diocese of Diphu, India to speak to us about his ministry. The diocese is engaged in various developmental and missionary activities. Presently, their work is focused in the field of education and health care. They want to strengthen existing primary and adult education centers. The religious women assist the diocese in these endeavors. This year, they would like to build two convents; one in Disobai parish and the other at Rongmongve parish, as they are now living in temporary shelters. Your contribution towards our special second collection next Sunday will help them to obtain a secure and clean environment and they can put their best efforts in every aspect of their activities. Thank you.
