Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 7, 2011

1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13 ; Psalm 85; Romans 9:1-5; Matthew 14:22-33

SUSTAIN OUR FAITH

We meet the Lord in the strangest places. Elijah spent the night listening to the wind, feeling the earthquake, and surrounded with fire, but the Lord was not in any of these. He came in a gentle breeze. We would like great events for meeting our God, but most often he stirs our hearts and minds very gently. If we listen, we encounter the Lord. Like Peter, we walk toward the Lord. The Lord says, "Come!" We respond: "Maranatha! Come, Lord Jesus, and sustain our faith!"

WELCOME FATHER ANGEL QUITALIG! GOODBYE MONSIGNOR C. MICHAEL PADAZINSKI!

Father Angel Quitalig has come to Mater Dolorosa as our new Resident Priest. Having recently finished his Licentiate in Canon Law at the Catholic University in Washington D.C., the Archbishop appointed him as the new Judge of the Metropolitan Tribunal at the Chancery Office in San Francisco. He was born in Pampanga, Philippines and was ordained a priest for the St. Paul's congregation before he moved to the San Francisco Archdiocese where he was incardinated in 2008. He has been assigned as Parochial Vicar at Our Lady of Mercy Parish in Daly City, and Holy Name Parish in San Francisco. Please welcome Fr. Angel to our parish community!

Monsignor C. Michael Padazinski, who has been with us for almost 12 years, is moving to a new residency at the rectory of St. Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco. The move will bring him closer to his work at the Chancery Office, which is just across the street; closer to the Archbishop who frequently calls him for consultations. As we know, he holds various positions in the Archdiocese, namely, as Chancellor and Secretary to the Archbishop, Judicial Vicar and Director at the Metropolitan Tribunal Office and many more responsibilities. We will surely miss him— his homilies, his friendship and the many good works he has done for our parish. We will have a Thanksgiving Mass on Sunday, August 21, at 12:00 p.m. to be followed by a farewell party in the parish hall.

We continue to keep them in our prayers.

The Lord be with you . . .

. . . and with your Spirit!

As many of you have heard, this coming Advent, several texts of the Mass are changing to translate more accurately the Latin text of the Roman Missal. The Mass itself is not changing, but only some texts of the Mass. There are relatively few texts to learn on the part of the congregation than the presiding priest. There will also be some songs to learn, since many of the melodies we are familiar with, for instance the Gloria, will not fit the new texts, and so we will have to learn new ones. You will be given information that will be published in our Sunday Bulletin, posted on our bulletin board and perhaps a handout, to learn more about the new texts. This is an opportunity for us to renew and enhance our understanding and appreciation of the Mass itself, which is the font of our Christian life.

Why is there a need for a new translation? Pope John Paul II issued the third edition of the Missale Romanum (the Latin text of the Roman Missal) during the Jubilee Year in 2000. This new edition included many new texts requiring translation. In addition, the experience of the years after the Second Vatican Council gave rise to a desire for more formal and literal translations of the original Latin texts. This new translation will employ the best of what we have learned about translation and liturgical language in two generations of celebrating the Liturgy in the vernacular. It will provide an opportunity to reflect ever more deeply on the Eucharistic celebration that lies at the heart of the Church's life.

What exactly is changing? The structure of the Mass (the order of the elements, the actions of the priest celebrant, and so forth) remains unchanged in the new edition of the Roman Missal. However, the translation of the prayer texts will change to more closely reflect the original Latin texts. In some cases, new options for prayers may be available, and some old options may no longer be present.

Two Successful Events at Mater Dolorosa

Our parish Alumni and BBQ was very well attended and everyone enjoyed the BBQ foods and the pot luck dishes that we shared. Our congratulations to the class who had the most alumni, and it was fun to see our teachers and watch a slide show of friends past and present. Thank you to all who made it happen. Also, thanks to all who put together the Ballroom Tea Dance. The dancing was great fun, the tables were very pretty, and the tea was scrumptious and elegant. Everyone learned some new steps and had a very nice afternoon.
