Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 14, 2011

Isaiah 56:1, 6-7 ; Psalm 67; Romans 11:13-15, 29-32; Matthew 15:21-28

ALL PEOPLES

All those who cling to the covenant will be acceptable, for the Lord's house is a house of prayer for all the peoples. The Lord attracts "pagans" and all sorts to himself, including the Canaanite woman desperate for her daughter, who wins attention and praise by asking for the crumbs under the Lord's table. Moved by her faith, the Lord grants the woman's wish. The woman of great faith is the Church, pleading for each of us. We are nourished from the Lord's table for our healing and salvation. Heal us, Lord!

Welcoming the
ROMAN MISSAL THIRD EDITION
Deepen. Nurture. Celebrate

The Lord be with you . . .

. . . and with your Spirit!

What's new or different about the revised translation? The style of the translation of the third edition is different. In accord with the rules for translation established by the Holy See, the revised translation follows the style of the original Latin texts more closely, including concrete images, repetition, parallelisms, and rhythm. The English used in the Mass texts is more formal and dignified in style. Where possible, the texts follow the language of Scripture and include many poetic images. In addition, the third edition contains prayers for the celebration of recently canonized saints, additional prefaces for the Eucharistic Prayers, additional Masses and prayers for various needs and intentions, and some updated and revised rubrics (or instructions) for the celebration of the Mass.

What opportunities does the new Missal offer the church? Implementing the new Missal will give the Church an opportunity to take a fresh look at its liturgical practice and to renew its celebration of the Sacred Liturgy, which is the "source and summit" of Christian life (Second Vatican Council, Dogmatic Constitution of the Church [Lumen Gentium], no. 11). The faithful, encountering the Liturgy anew in the new text, can deepen their sharing in Christ's sacrifice, offering their lives to the Father as they worship "in Spirit and truth" (John 4:23).

Our 50th Anniversary Commemorative T-Shirts are Here!

Show your love of Mater Dolorosa by wearing a 50th Anniversary T-shirt! There are two styles to choose from: white with short sleeves and light blue with long sleeves. The short sleeved T-shirts are $10.00 and the long sleeved are $15.00 each and we have a wide range of sizes. Please look for them to be sold after Mass, or at our upcoming events.

*There will be a
 50th Anniversary Committee Meeting on Tuesday, August 16th at 6:30 p.m.
 Everyone is welcome
 and encouraged to attend.*

September 18th is Officially Declared
 "Mater Dolorosa Day"

Our formal request to the South San Francisco City Council to proclaim September 18, 2011 as Mater Dolorosa Day has been approved! The proclamation will be presented to Father Roland and the Mater Dolorosa parish community on Wednesday, September 14, at the Municipal Services Building at 33 Arroyo Dr., at 7:00 p.m.
