THE HOLY FAMILY of JESUS, MARY & JOSEPH

December 29, 2013

Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14; Psalm 128;
Colossians 3:12-21; Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23

LOVE

For generations, various cultures regarded family life merely as a utilitarian necessity. Sirach introduces honor and respect. For Jews and Christians alike, the value of family goes even further. The family is seen as the indispensable school where love is learned. Paul addresses the Colossians and offers a list of virtues that make for a solid and happy church. These values also make for a happy family at ease with itself and its members: mercy, kindness, humility, meekness, patience, forgiveness. As a capstone, Paul urges love, which brings all of these domestic virtues to perfection.

Paul seems to be on a roll as he lauds the virtues of the church at Colossae. With such heartfelt virtues, it is no wonder Paul bursts into song. Who wouldn't? It's clear that the center of the church is love. It is clear that no matter how far from home the members travel, the heart remains and all the members are connected by the gravitational pull of mutual love, a love first learned in family life.

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

The Children's Faith Formation program is on Christmas break. Regular classes will resume on Tuesday, January 7th. Students should complete the on-line training in www.shieldthevulnerable.org for the applicable grade level and submit the certificate of completion when they return to classes.

The First Communion families will meet on Jan. 5th, from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. to prepare for the Sacrament of Reconciliation and older communion students will have their sacrament preparation class at the same time. There will be Children's Liturgy of the Word at the 10:00 a.m. Mass too.

On January 4-5, 2014, as we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany, the parish community is invited to bring to the Sunday Liturgy gifts of undergarments, gently used jackets and other warm wear for men and women. Like the Wise Ones who visited the Lord, we offer these gifts as a sign of love to people in our community who are in need. We care for God's people by giving warmth, prayer and hope. Our donations will be sorted and bagged by the Confirmation students and taken to local non-profit organization for distribution to our neighbors in need. Collection of these items will start this week-end. Thank you for your generosity.

Question of the Week:

Lower Level:

What might have happened if Joseph had taken it easy and not listened and obeyed God?

Higher Level:

Why do you think Joseph listened to God? Have you ever been like Joseph and obeyed and then were very glad you did?

TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS at MATER DOLOROSA

At the request of our Archbishop Cordileone, beginning on January 19th, we will have the Extraordinary Form of the Holy Mass (Latin Mass) in our parish church. It will be held on Sundays at 5:00 p.m. and Monday through Friday at 12:00 p.m. Father Vito Perrone and Father Joseph Homick will be the celebrants.

ATTENTION: MATER DOLOROSA MINISTRIES

Please contact the Rectory Office for any on-going or new 2014 events that will be taking place in our parish. In order for our scheduling to be free from conflict, we ask that you let Fran know as soon as possible any event, meeting, or social occasion you would like booked and reserved.

Thank you!
