THIRD SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

January 26, 2014

Isaiah 8:23—9:3; Psalm 27;
1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17; Matthew 4:12-23

DIVISION

It is a situation that plays itself out in more and less significant ways: Christians divided.

A CYO basketball game between two neighboring parishes. Parents of the young players scream insults and threats at one another and assert their “superiority.”

A Protestant and a Catholic church sit on adjoining properties. Each is vigilant about having parking violators removed from its own “private” parking lot.

An old pastor retires but continues to reside at the parish. A new pastor arrives and quickly finds his faith “community” choosing sides against him.

Saint Paul addresses similar disagreements in the early church at Corinth. He encourages the church there to make up their differences and to be united again in their belief and practice.

Today’s first reading from Isaiah speaks of a people weighed down by the yoke of sin and darkness. Certainly the bickering and differences among us can be classified as such. The Gospel tells of the beginning ministry of Jesus. The Light has come, encouraging us to “repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

There will be a safety training on "Talking about Touching" for all Grade 1 to Grade 3 students on Feb. 4 and Feb. 11 during class time. Parents who choose to not allow this training for their children in the CFF class must sign a waiver to ensure compliance with the USCCB and for the child to be excused from attending the class. Please pick up a waiver form from the CFF office. For grades 4 through 12, please complete the applicable on-line training at www.shieldthevulnerable.org and submit the completed form by Feb. 11th. Detailed instructions are still available in the school lobby. Students who did not complete the on-line training will be required to attend an on-line training class on Wednesday, Feb. 12th at 6:00 p.m.

CFF parents and/or guardians, please mark your calendar for our family meeting on February 25th at 6:00 p.m. in the parish hall. Childcare will be provided. Confirmation students can earn service hours by volunteering to help in the childcare rooms.

Question of the Week:

*How did people learn about Jesus before television and the Internet?
What does being a follower mean?*

Higher Level:

*What is the good news of the kingdom that Jesus spreads?
Why do you think people follow Jesus? Would you?*
