THE PRESENTATION of the LORD

February 2, 2014

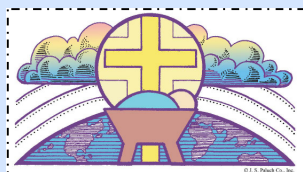

Malachi 3:1-4; Psalm 24;
Hebrews 2:14-18; Luke 2:22-40

A CHRISTMAS REPRISE

The Church's celebration three weeks ago of the Baptism of the Lord signaled the "official" end of the Christmas season. Today's feast of the Presentation of the Lord seems to extend the Incarnation celebration a bit longer. In fact, some have called this feast a "Second Epiphany."

The first reading recalls the anticipation of Advent, as Malachi writes, "Lo, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me." The reading from Hebrews reminds us of the Incarnation, proclaiming that Jesus had a "share" in our own "blood and flesh." The Gospel finds the infant Jesus on his first visit to Jerusalem and his human parents once again surprised and in awe over the events surround his birth.

In the simplicity of the manger, in the grandeur of the temple, in the domesticity of Nazareth, Jesus comes. May we come to know him and so be filled with "wisdom" and the "favor of God." Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

There will be a safety training on "Talking about Touching" for all grade 1 to grade 3 students on Feb. 4 and Feb 11 during class time. Parents who choose not allow this training for their children in the CFF class must sign a waiver to ensure compliance with the USCCB and for the child to be excused from attending the class. Please pick up a waiver form from CFF office.

For grades 4 through 12, please complete the applicable on-line training at www.shieldthevulnerable.org and submit the completed form by Feb. 11th. Detailed instructions are still available in the school lobby. Students who did not complete the on-line training will be required to attend a class on-line training on Wednesday, Feb. 12th at 6:00 p.m.

Question of the Week:

Lower Level

WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE

In 1997, Pope John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples.

This weekend, please pray for all those women and men who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

PRAYER FOR RAIN

The California Conference of Bishops have requested all the faithful of California to pray the following prayer for an end to the drought in California:

For all of us who face threats to our health, safety and occupation due to the lack of rain. We pray that God will open the heavens for us and send us the blessing of the amount of rain and snow we need for our lives, health and well-being. Amen.
