EASTER SUNDAY

April 20, 2014

Acts 10:34, 37-43; Psalm 118;
1 Corinthians 5:6-8; Matthew 28:1-10

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

“What do you know?” is the question linking all three readings today. Imagine the shock waves that shot through the city of Jerusalem that first Easter morning. Jesus’ body was missing! By the time Peter spoke the words found in today’s first reading, fifty days had passed, so he began by saying, in effect, “I take it you know what has been reported all over Judea about Jesus of Nazareth.” Of course they knew by then, but in today’s Gospel we are taken back to the first day. We meet Mary Magdalene exclaiming, “We don’t know where they put him!”

What do we know? In the second reading Paul asks, “Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough?” Do we know the power of our own faith? Do we know the effect we can have on others?

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

Children Faith Formation classes are on spring break.

There are no classes on April 22. Classes will resume on April 29. The final practice for the celebration of the sacrament of First Communion is on April 29th, from 4:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. All first communicants and at least one parent must attend this practice. Please pray for our CFF students who have been preparing for the past two years to receive Holy Communion for the first time on May 3rd at 10:00 a.m. Mass. The annual Mater Dolorosa May Crowning is on Sunday, May 4th at 10:00 a.m. Our first communicants will fully participate with the community during this 10:00 a.m. Mass. They will also offer flowers to Mother Mary before the Mass. All children are invited to bring flowers and join the procession. Be here at 9:30 a.m. There will be Children's Liturgy at this Mass too.

Question of the week:

Lower Level:

What do Mary Magdalene, the beloved disciple, and Simon Peter see at the tomb? How do you think Peter feels when he sees the tomb?

Higher Level:

How does Mary Magdalene recognize Jesus? What Church traditions for celebrating Easter help you understand your Christian faith?

WE BID GOODBYE TO SISTER AGNES HADDOCK

With sad hearts we bid farewell to Sister Agnes who will move to her Motherhouse in Seattle next month. Sister Agnes Haddock has been an integral part of Mater Dolorosa's history. She was a teacher at the school for more than 30 years until its closure in 2007. She has coordinated the Eucharistic Ministers and Readers for our church and has been a big help in the Rectory Office throughout the years.

Please join us to celebrate Sister Agnes' enormous contribution to this parish community in a reception on Saturday, May 10th following the 5:00 p.m. Mass. We will keep Sister Agnes in our hearts and in our prayers, with deepest gratitude, for her life's work at Mater Dolorosa, her years of teaching, and her support of this parish. She will be missed.

PARISHIONER OF THE YEAR BEATRIZ G. PINEDA

We are pleased to announce that Bea Pineda will be awarded the title of The 2014 Mater Dolorosa Parishioner of the Year! She will be honored at an awards breakfast through the Young Men's Institute, on Sunday, April 27th at All Souls Church. Bea is a member of the Legion of Mary, the Hospitality Ministry, Second Harvest, a volunteer as a counter on Mondays, a bulk mail assistant, she runs the Gift Card Program, and is a volunteer in the Rectory Office whenever she is needed. She is a dedicated parishioner who helps her parish in many ways. We thank Bea Pineda with this honor, and wish her all of God's blessing for her good works. Thank you Bea!

As a consultative body, they are to examine and consider all that relates to pastoral work and to offer practical recommendations on these matters, so that the life and activity of the people may be brought into greater conformity with the Gospel.
