THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

June 1, 2014

Acts 1:12-14; Psalm 27;
1 Peter 4:13-16; John 17:1-11

A MISSION FROM THE MOUNTAIN

Matthew is the only one of the evangelists who does not speak explicitly of or recount the departure of Jesus from his followers. Mark and Luke recount the Ascension, each in his own way; and John consistently has Jesus speak of the necessity of his departure so the Paraclete might come. Matthew situates his final scene for Jesus on top of a mountain in Galilee (not outside Jerusalem, as Luke does). This is the region where his mission originated, and throughout his Gospel the mountaintop has been the place for him to teach his followers. (We are familiar with the “Sermon on the Mount” from Matthew.) And here Jesus re-echoes those Ascension themes we hear from the other evangelists: It is Jesus himself, risen and glorified, charged with power from the Father, who sends us out; it is Jesus himself who gives us our mission to baptize, heal, teach, and proclaim the Good News of salvation; it is Jesus himself who will be with us always, as we continue to be his presence alive in the world.

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

Thank you to Knights of Columbus for hosting a dinner and several speakers to give a talk about religious vocation to our confirmation II students and their parents on Tuesday, May 20th. Let us continue to pray for these students as they prepare for the celebration of the sacrament of Confirmation next Sunday, and for their life-long faith journey. May the stories they heard during the vocation dinner touch their hearts.

Early enrollment for the 2014-2015 year at discounted fees ends in June 15. New and current students must register. Please pick up a registration form and information from the vestibule or the Rectory Office. The CFF office is closed in June and July, please call 650-588-8175 to make an appointment if you need to speak with Mrs. Smit or Mrs. Cepeda. There will be Children's Liturgy of the Word every first and third Sunday of the month, except July 6th, this summer at 10:00 a.m. Mass. For Mass times during vacation; go to www.masstimes.org.

CFF families, please be sure to bring your "Passport to Heaven" when you are on vacation and take a picture of the church you visited or attended for a Sunday Mass. The children will share their pictures and stories when we have our beginning of the school year Mass in October.

Question of the Week:

Lower Level:

Who taught you about Jesus?

Who are you sharing and teaching about Jesus?

Higher Level:

How will you "go, baptize, and teach" today, in your particular situation, with and for the people God has placed in your life?

Are you ready and willing to be an apostle today?
