SAINTS PETER & PAUL, APOSTLES

June 29, 2014

Acts 12:1-11; Psalm 34;
2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18; Matthew 16:13-19

PETER AND PAUL

Today is something of a rarity: the celebration of a saint's day that replaces the Sunday liturgy. Only a handful of these days, given the official rank of "solemnity," are considered so foundational and primal to the mission of the Church that they can interrupt the Sunday sequence. And so it is with Peter and Paul today.

In a way, they each have personality traits with which we can identify. They are both impetuous, sometimes acting or speaking thoughtlessly, contradicting the spiritual gifts given to them by God. At such times, they might receive a nudge from God, much the same as many of us experience. On the positive side, these men were deeply rooted in their faith in Christ, tireless and fearless in living out their call to spread the Good News of his death and resurrection. Perhaps we might identify more with one or the other, but the essential truth we celebrate today is this: Through the Spirit, Christ built and continues to build the Church and make the kingdom known through fragile, remarkable human beings, each graced in a particular way for the work of the reign of God.

- ◆ Mrs. Carol Duenas received her Basic Certification in Catechesis
- ◆ CFF families hosted the Tuesday before Lent evening event with a theme of "Loving God and Others" (Pancake Tuesday or Fat Tuesday before Ash Wednesday)
- ◆ CFF families ended the school year with "The Living Rosary" focusing on missionary church of the whole world.
- ◆ For the first time, we had 9 older students baptized on Easter Vigil
- ◆ Confirmations students sang to hospice patients, served the Handicapped, volunteered at the Catholic Workers House in San Bruno and led MD parishioners to pray the Stations of the Cross in shadows.
- ◆ On Pentecost Sunday, our 12 confirmation students received the Sacrament of Confirmation.

What's happening now...It's vacation time for many, time to fire up the grill, week-ends away, visiting or hosting relatives. We shed those heavy clothes in favor of hot weather informality. It's probably true in fact, that these summer months can be a wonderful time to re-examine our own attitude towards our own faith and formation of our children in Christian faith while we are more relaxed. Sunday Mass is still important as ever. As we are freer in the summer, try different Mass times, visit a neighboring parish or experience a new parish while on vacation (check for <http://www.masstimes.org/>). Let us get out of our "pew" and experience the Church from a different perspective. CFF families, please make sure to bring your child's "Passport to Heaven". Please take a picture of the church or altar you visited or attended Mass with Mater Dolorosa logo on the passport. Enroll early for the Child Faith Formation (religious education/CCD) 2014-2015 school year. Please pick up a registration form with information from the vestibule, the Rectory office or from the website <http://www.mdssf.org/ccd/ccd.htm#top>. The CFF office is closed in June and July, please call 650-588-8175 to make an appointment or leave a message in the Rectory at 650-583-4131.

Question of the Week:

Lower Level:

Peter was leader of the community; a man of faith who loved Jesus.
He was also weak and denied him.

Can you accept loving but weak members in the Church, both leaders and faithful?

Higher Level:

Each of us is challenged to answer Jesus' question to Peter on a personal level during our lifetime: 'But you, who do you say that I am?'

Happy Independence Day!

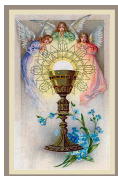

There will be NO 8:00 a.m. Mass on Friday, July 4th. Our Mass will be at 10:00 a.m. followed by hospitality. May you and your families have an enjoyable holiday.

Our Rectory Office will be closed.

Do you know

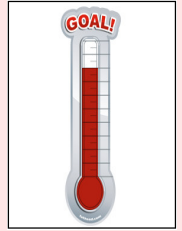

A child or teenager under 18 years old who has not been baptized, received Communion or Confirmation? Please pick up a CFF program flyer and registration form to enroll in our program. Questions? Call the CFF office at 650-588-8175. Your calls will be returned.

ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL 2014 OUR GOAL HAS BEEN REACHED!

Father Roland is very happy to announce that our goal of $52,800.00 has not only been reached, but as usual, we have gone over our goal and we will receive $14,315.00 back for use by our parish. These figures are from a report from the Office of Development ending on May 31, 2014. A big thank you to all our generous parishioners who participate in this appeal. Thank you once again for making Mater Dolorosa's 2014 AAA a success!

NEW VOTIVE CANDLE STAND IN LOBBY ALCOVE

You may have noticed our new Votive Candle Stand in the lobby alcove. The candles are electric although they "flicker" like a real candle, and are beautiful and safe. Please be encouraged to "light" a candle for yourself or someone you are keeping in your prayers. We give our heartfelt thanks to Mario & Lilia Avendano for their donation of this enhancement to our church lobby, along with the risen Christ cross above it.

We thank Ricardo Carlos and Rufo Macaraeg for the pedestals for statues of the images of The Sacred Heart of Jesus and St. Anthony of Padua for our new lobby alcove. Their donation beautifies the alcove and gives height to the statues, for all to see, to contemplate and prayerfully enjoy. Thanks for your dedication to our church lobby.

FORTNIGHT FOR FREEDOM

For the third year, the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops

(USCCB) has asked us to pray and fast for 14 days (a fortnight) for freedom. The theme of this year's Fortnight will focus on the freedom to serve the poor and vulnerable in accord with human dignity and the Church's teaching. Each of the 14 days will include Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and praying the Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Religious freedom is a precious gift from God. Prayer and fasting are the most powerful weapons we have to protect this freedom. Fast from your favorite activities - such as T.V., sports, internet, talking on phone, shopping - COME AND PRAY FOR THE FUTURE GENERATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES to protect religious freedom. Full schedules are available in the vestibule. You can also request a copy by sending an email to: Diana@mdssf.org or diana@mdssf.org. If you would like help, call Diana at 650-922-3941.
