NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

August 10, 2014

1 Kings 19:9, 11-13; Psalm 85;
Romans 9:1-5; Matthew 14:22-33

PRESENCE

It is difficult to be truly present to another. We speak of putting in an appearance or showing up. Even when we arrive, we are often distracted. We think ahead, or we review an unsettled past. Nonetheless, we are at our best when we truly show up. We are most fully ourselves when we are absorbed in something worthy of us: creative work, good conversation, prayer. In these instances we are wholly ourselves and wholly outside ourselves.

Elijah knew this kind of engagement. He was one of God's great prophets. In today's first reading, he follows God's command to journey to that most holy place, Mount Horeb. And there in great silence, Elijah encounters God.

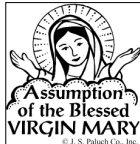

As for Peter and the apostles, they discover the presence of God after the storm at sea. They and the sea and the winds are stunned into silent reverence. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Question of the Week:

When life seems tough and you are afraid, how will you turn to Christ with trust?

"It is with mixed emotion that I write this note to all of you. As most of you have heard, I have been blessed with an opportunity to continue my catechetical ministry in my sister's parish which is a closer commute from our home. The Mater Dolorosa parish community has been part of God's plans for me. It has been full of surprises and a wonderful experience for the past few years. So much of our lives have been shared together and now even in different locations we share our faith, God's love, and our hopes for what is to come. Thank you very much for your love and support. I also humbly ask for your forgiveness for all my shortcomings.

As written in the Scripture, Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know well the plans I have in mind for you—oracle of the LORD, plans for your welfare and not for woe, so as to give you a future of hope." God's plan will continue for me, for Mater Dolorosa CFF and for the new parish community that I will serve. You will be remembered in my prayers and I ask you to please remember me in yours. See you around!"

Fall 2014 Training for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Readers

It is the policy of the Archdiocese that all EMHC and Reader ministers be certified once every three years or when relocating to a new parish. This policy helps to improve lay ministry practices, facilitates communication of liturgical ministry developments, and provides an opportunity for "veteran" lay ministers to share their wisdom and experience with newer ministers. Training and Certification workshops for Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion and Readers will be offered at three locations during the fall of 2014.

Marin County

September 20 & 27 - Saint Isabella

San Mateo County

October 18 & 25 - Immaculate Heart of Mary

San Francisco County

November 15 & 22 - Saint Elizabeth

The training programs stretch over two Saturdays at each training site. On the first Saturday, a general session on Ministerial Theology offered in the morning to all participants presented by Father David Pettingill Ministers must attend BOTH Saturdays (10-3 on the first Saturday and 10-12 on the second Saturday) to be certified. For those who pre-register through the parish, there is a $20 fee. Fees are used to pay speakers and for materials. Although the first session begins at 10:00 a.m., early arrival (9:30 a.m.) will allow ample time to sign-in and to enjoy a cup of coffee which will be provided at the first morning session. Please note that lunch will not be served. If you would like to sign up, please contact the Rectory Office or Deacon Romeo Cruz at (650) 898-9023, who will be coordinating the participants. We look forward to meeting our new and experienced lay ministers in the fall of 2014!

CONFESSIONAL/LOBBY ALCOVE PROJECT COMPLETE

You may have noticed that our Confessional and Lobby Alcove projects are complete. Our Lobby Alcove is a beautiful place to enjoy the view of the new garden, or sit and prayerfully enjoy the statues of The Sacred Heart of Jesus, Our Mother Mary, and St. Anthony of Padua. You may light a candle at our new votive candle stand and you are welcome to make an offering. The alcove makes good use of our space and has beautified our vestibule area. You may also take advantage of the Sacrament of Reconciliation by making a confession in our new confessional inside the church. We thank John Lucchesi for his support and advice, John Matthews Architects, and Mario Lagula of MBL Construction, and of course, all of our donors for their support and generous donations and those who gave their time and talents to this project.

Many thanks to all!
