Romans 11:33-36; Matthew 16:13-20

THE ROCK

Peter was Jesus' choice to lead the fragile band of apostles. In today's Gospel, Simon is given a new name—Peter, the "rock." In John's Gospel, Peter is called to be a shepherd. He is expected to lay down his life for his sheep.

And tradition tells us that he did just that. But today we think about the durable rocklike quality that Jesus needed in a leader.

Peter was appointed to his leadership position for reasons we are not able to fathom. God knows, and Jesus knew well, that Peter was flawed. We cannot mistake his enthusiasms, though, his manifest love, and his great, exuberant faith. Those virtues saw him through. They are durable, tough, beautiful virtues. They make Peter a sympathetic and lovable person. They provide us with the balance and humor that we need as we consider our own roles in the universal church.

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

Christ has confidence in young people and entrusts them with the very future of his mission, 'Go and make disciples.' Go beyond the confines of what is humanly possible and create a world of brothers and sisters! Young people have confidence in Christ; they are not afraid to risk for Him the only life they have, because they know they will not be disappointed." (Pope Francis World Youth Day 2013). Let us help you in handing on the faith in Christ for your children so they build their trust and confidence in Christ. Registration for Faith Formation classes or religious education is now being accepted. Families interested in our program should call the CFF office at 650-588-8175, or the Rectory Office at 650-583-4131 or you may send an email to cff@mdssf.org for the registration materials. You may also get more information from the website - <http://www.mdssf.org/ccd/ccd.htm#top>. The classes will start on September 16th.

Now is the time to let us know about your incoming 1st graders to start their two-year preparation for the sacrament of First Eucharist. For students seeking the sacrament of Confirmation, participation in the Confirmation I class is required and must register now if the student's grade level is grade 8 or above. If your child is older than 7 years and has not been baptized, we have a one-year preparation program for this age group. In addition, students must attend Tuesday Faith Formation classes too. The baptism will be held on Easter Vigil.

There will be Children's Liturgy of the Word on Sept. 7th at 10:00 a.m. Mass. The Catechetical Sunday is on Sept. 21. There will be Commissioning of Catechists at the 10:00 a.m. Mass. Please support our volunteer teachers for their dedication to our Faith Formation Program.

Question of the Week:

How do you respond to the question Jesus asked, "Who do you say that I am?"

Fall 2014 Training for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Readers

It is the policy of the Archdiocese that all EMHC and Reader ministers be certified once every three years or when relocating to a new parish. This policy helps to improve lay ministry practices, facilitates communication of liturgical ministry developments, and provides an opportunity for "veteran" lay ministers to share their wisdom and experience with newer ministers. Training and Certification workshops for Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion and Readers will be offered at three locations during the fall of 2014.

Marin County

September 20 & 27 - Saint Isabella

San Mateo County

October 18 & 25 - Immaculate Heart of Mary

San Francisco County

November 15 & 22 - Saint Elizabeth

The training programs stretch over two Saturdays at each training site. On the first Saturday, a general session on Ministerial Theology offered in the morning to all participants presented by Father David Pettingill Ministers must attend BOTH Saturdays (10-3 on the first Saturday and 10-12 on the second Saturday) to be certified. For those who pre-register through the parish, there is a $20 fee. Fees are used to pay speakers and for materials. Although the first session begins at 10:00 a.m., early arrival (9:30 a.m.) will allow ample time to sign-in and to enjoy a cup of coffee which will be provided at the first morning session. Please note that lunch will not be served. If you would like to sign up, please contact the Rectory Office or Deacon Romeo Cruz at (650) 898-9023, who will be coordinating the participants. We look forward to meeting our new and experienced lay ministers in the fall of 2014!
