TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

September 28, 2014

Ezekiel 18:25-28; Psalm 25;
Philippians 2:1-11; Matthew 21:28-32

NECESSARY REPETITION

Spiritual teachers tend to repeat themselves, and to repeat other teachers. Maybe there really aren't that many different truths to tell. Just a lot of slow, sleepy human beings—like us—who need to hear the basics over and over. Consider today's readings.

People complain that God isn't "fair," and Ezekiel answers that God is more than fair. People choose their own fates, and people can change. Even evildoers can turn, do right, and live. "Actions speak louder than words." A fresh new insight? Hardly.

Paul tells the Philippians he would truly be encouraged if those who claimed to be believers would, in fact, look to others' interests and not their own. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating." A novel idea? I don't think so.

In Jesus' story of the farmer and his sons, everyone knows the one who said he wouldn't work—but did—is way ahead of the one who said he would work, but didn't. "Talk is cheap." Heard that before?

Please call the CFF office at 650-588-8175 or send an email to cff@mdssf.org for registration information. For your convenience, you can also find this information on our website <http://www.mdssf.org/ccd/ccd.htm#top>. Our beginning of the year Mass is on Oct. 5th at the 10a.m. Mass. We are still collecting your passport to heaven pictures from the summer so that we can add it to our slideshow. Please bring it to class or email it to cff@mdssf.org. Our back to school family meeting is on Tuesday, Oct 7th at 6p.m. in the parish hall. Parents and guardians are required to attend. Child care will be provided.

Question of the Week:

Have you ever said, "yes" to someone and then not done what you agreed to do? Did you ever say "no" to someone who asked you (like a parent or teacher) but then regretted it and changed your mind? Jesus is making it clear that sinners who repent are entering the kingdom before the priests and elders who did not repent and believe.

Which is better, saying no and then doing what one is asked or saying yes and not following through?
