TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

October 12, 2014

Isaiah 25:6-10; Psalm 23;
Philippians 4:12-14, 19020; Matthew 21:1-14

COME TO THE FEAST

“On this mountain, the Lord of hosts / will provide for all peoples / a feast of rich food and choice wines” (Isaiah 25:6). That’s what Isaiah tells us today. God is putting together a huge party for “all peoples,” to “wipe away / the tears from every face” (Isaiah 25:8).

And what does Jesus tell us? The reign of God, he says, “may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son” (Matthew 22:2). When the guests didn’t come, the king had his servants go out “into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find” (Matthew 22:9). We are called to deliver that invitation.

One of the themes woven into today’s liturgy is that of divine generosity. Asleep to reality, people often think they have “earned” what they have. In our better moments, though, we know that all our gifts—even the spiritual gifts—come through God’s generosity. Our vocation is to invite people, to remind them the tickets aren’t for sale. We can only show up and say thank you.

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

Our Passport to Heaven presentation was a huge success. Thank you to the Damian, Lavilla, Moreno and Ortega families, Ms. Rachael and Ms. Tess for submitting their pictures and to the children who shared with us the churches they have taken their Passport to Heaven to over the summer.

A very special thank you to Sabrina Harper for sharing how our parents can partner with our faith formation program to help pass on our faith to your children during our family meeting last Tuesday. Please join us on Tuesday, October 14th during all our class sessions. We will have a teaching Mass to reinforce what your child has been reviewing in class these last few weeks. What is a teaching Mass? It is an instructional class about the Mass. We walk through all the parts of the Mass from the beginning to the end explaining what the priest or deacon is doing and why we do the actions or say the responses we do at Mass. Everyone is invited to join us. Our next gathering for Children's Liturgy of the Word will next week Sunday, October 19th at the 10:00 a.m. Mass.

Question of the Week:

In today's Gospel, Jesus tell us a parable about a feast hosted by God. The invited guests do not show up, so other guests are gathered from the streets and invited to share the table and the joy.

Have you ever thought that other things were more important or that you were too busy to accept God's invitation to Eucharist, sacraments, prayer, or doing something pleasing to God and helpful to others?

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Next weekend, our parish will celebrate World Mission Sunday. This year we are invited to reach out and help build the Church in Mongolia, the world's youngest Catholic Church, as well as local churches throughout the Missions, in the most remote areas across our world. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy; His hope and peace. Please keep the Missions in your daily prayers. Please come prepared next weekend to give generously in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. For more information please visit www.IAMAMissionary.org
