THE DEDICATION of the LATERAN BASILICA

November 9, 2014

Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12 ; Psalm 46;
1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17 ; John 2:13-22

THE TEMPLE AND WORSHIP

In all of today's readings, the temple is prominently mentioned. Ezekiel speaks of streams of living water flowing out from the temple, watering the desert, bringing life to all living things, offering fresh healing to God's people.

Paul reminds the Corinthians that their faith rests upon the firmest of foundations, Christ himself. More than that, Paul reveals that those who follow Christ are themselves temples, temples of the Holy Spirit; that is, God dwells not only with them, but in them.

For the Jews of Jesus' time, the temple had come to be identified with the presence of God and the only place where authentic worship of God took place. Jesus had a different perception. Jesus identified himself not with the temple, but as the temple. In so doing, Jesus indicated a dramatic shift in what it means to worship God, to be in God's presence. No longer was a place to be the focus of prayer. Instead, a person, the person of Jesus Christ, becomes the center of our worship.

Questions of the Week:

Today is the feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. A basilica is a church with special historical importance. The Lateran Basilica in Rome is the cathedral church of the pope. It is the "mother church" of all the Catholic churches in the world.

Lower Levels 1-6: What do you think of when you hear the word "church"? Why is it important to remember that the church building is not the Church?
Higher Level 7 & Confirmation classes: In what ways can you show that you recognize the holiness of the human temple when you participate in the liturgy? How can you show that you recognize that you are a temple of God?

ATTENTION: WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE AN ALTAR SERVER?

You must be in 4th grade and up (middle school and high school) and have received Holy Communion. We will have a meeting on Saturday, November 22nd at 9:30 a.m. in the church. Please contact Deacon Alex Aragon at 650-583-3877 to sign up.

ALL ARE WELCOME!
