DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Second Sunday of Easter

April 12, 2015

Acts 4:32-35; Psalm: 118;
1 John 5:1-6; John 20:19-31

OF ONE HEART AND MIND

Reading about the faith of the early Christian believers can be a real inspiration to those of us who have been Christians for a long time, as well as for those who are newly baptized. Can you imagine people of this world being “of one heart and mind” as was the first community of believers? Today’s First Letter of John seems to hold the key to how this can be accomplished. Keeping God’s commandments and loving all of God’s children seems to be the start of being “of one heart and mind.” We live in a world that stresses differences, the differences among religions, among races, between genders, and among economic classes. Today we are summoned to focus on what we all share in common on this fragile planet of ours.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When we imagine the disciples cowering behind locked doors on the first Easter, it is a matter of the greatest urgency that the doors get opened. They are not locked in as if in prison; rather, they have chosen to live in fear. Both the lock and the key stand on their side of the door, in their control. Christ breaks through this significant barrier with a message of "Peace." The risen Lord's word propels them through the door and along the path leading to the consoling image of the community living in harmony in the first reading today. What do we pray for in our tradition? More than anything else, we pray for peace. Every Mass is an earnest prayer for peace with God, with self, with neighbor, and for peace in the world. Yet, curiously, the peace Christ offers is deeper than the mere absence of conflict. Our tradition treasures the memories of saints who were remarkably open to Christ's gift of peace even in the maelstroms of history. St. Edith Stein and St. Maximilian Kolbe, martyrs of the Holocaust, are but two examples. At the eye of a fearful storm, they stand as witnesses to the power of Christ's rising in our lives. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

CFF classes will resume this Tuesday, April 14. First Communion families: Parent meeting on Apr 14 during your child's class time and Family Retreat, April 18 – 8:30am-12noon. Reminder: Confirmation 2 candidates: Sponsor and candidate service project reflection is due on Apr 14 as well as the music presentation of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. Our next Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLW) will be on Apr 19 at 10:00am. Please be reminded that CLW is a concerned and sensitive way of presenting the Word of God to the children (Pre-K to grade 5) in order to participate actively in the formal worship experience of the community. Questions of the Week:

In today's Gospel reading, put yourself in Thomas' place. When the risen Jesus appeared to the other disciples, you were absent. Now they are insisting that not only did they see him, but he breathed the power of the Holy Spirit on them.

Levels 1-6: What does Jesus share with his friends and with us? What causes Thomas to change his mind and believe Jesus is risen? Level 7 & Confirmation classes: What does receiving the power of the Holy Spirit enable the disciples to do? What good would you say came out of Thomas' missing out on Jesus' first visit?
