THANKSGIVING

The word "thanksgiving" most often calls to our mind the holiday in November. But as early as the middle of the second century Justin Martyr referred to the blessed bread and wine of the Lord's Supper as "food we call 'thanksgiving'" (in Greek eucharistia). The Thanksgiving we celebrate in the autumn is at times marked by a sort of proud societal self-congratulation and the consumption of food until we sink into an inert stupor. The "thanksgiving" that we call our Eucharist is just the opposite: we are led to it by an acknowledgment of our own failings; we remember our humble place in the scheme of things by giving praise to God alone.

While the food of Christ's body and blood fills our spiritual hungers, it also creates in us a greater hunger. We are not sent to our spiritual sofas to let the Lord's Supper settle; we are sent to be living signs of that thanksgiving for the world by looking out for the poor and powerless, feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, speaking out against the self-righteous. In short, the hunger created by our doing in remembrance of Christ must lead us to living in remembrance of him.

ARE YOU CALLED TO BE A CATECHIST ASSISTANT?

Boldly go where many have gone before and help pass on the Good News of Jesus Christ and our Catholic faith! This fall, over 120 children and young people, Kinder through grade 12, will sign up to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. We are in need of more people to pass on our faith. You can help by becoming a catechist assistant for our Faith Formation Program. As you nurture the faith of our young, you will learn and grow as well! As one long-time catechist put it, "I learn so much from the children!" We provide you with training, materials, and support. Classes begin September 15. If interested or for more information, contact Felisa Cepeda @ 650.588.8175 or Fr. Roland @ 650.583.4131.

OUR SACRIFICE

Let us offer Christ the great universal sacrifice of our love. For he offered his cross to God as sacrifice in order to make us all

Women's Catholic Scripture Study Group

The Women's Catholic Scripture Study group of San Mateo County invites you to join us in the study of the Book of Psalms: Sing a New Psalm: Communicating with God through the Prayers of the Church. The Psalms are described as prayer-responses to every situation imaginable in human life, songs of prayer and praise expressing gratitude and joy, pain and sorrow, fear and hope. As we pray/study these beautiful songs/prayers of God's people, both past and present, we will consider how they relate to our own lives. Our 28-week study meets Thursday mornings, beginning at 10 AM at St. Mark Church in Belmont. The study will begin on September 10th and end on May 12th (with breaks for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter), and includes study questions, small group discussion, and class wrap-up lecture. For more information about this study, go to: www.TurningtoGodsWord.com. To receive an application to join us, please contact either Diane Masetti at email diane@cssbelmont.com phone number 650-593-3681 or Tami Palladino at: tami@stcharlesparish.org phone number 650-592-7349, extension 405. Thank you.

We offer congratulations, and keep in our prayers, the following young people and their families from our parish community who on May 24, 2015 received the sacrament of Confirmation at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption:

- Josh "St. Pius" Balancio
- Kevin "St. Anthony" Carpio
- Mario "St. Vitus" Garcia-Castillo
- Vanessa "St. Therese" Gomez
- Anne "St. Anslem" Jalandoni
- Jason "St. Peter" Javier

*The Society of St. Vincent de Paul's
Catherine Center
Invites you to celebrate
Blossoming into Transformation*

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul of San Mateo County's Catherine Center invites you to join us at our second annual Fashion Show Fundraiser "Blossoming into Transformation" on Thursday, June 18th, 2015 at historic Filoli Gardens, celebrating the beautiful transformation that is possible for the women of SVdP's Catherine Center. Catherine Center helps women reclaim their lives after incarceration. Our event is being co-chaired by Kim Selby and Cyndie Pogue. Please note the private garden area opens at 11:30 am with luncheon and fashion show to follow. Tickets are $75 each. Purchase online or call 650-373-0622 for more information.
