Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 19, 2015

Jeremiah 23:1-6; Psalm: 23;
Ephesians 2:13-18; Mark 6:30-34

CHRIST'S PRESENCE IN THE WORLD

There's a bit of a "missing link" in the first two sentences of today's Gospel from Mark. In the first, the apostles return from having been sent out on mission two by two ("one who is sent" is the meaning of "apostle"). Their instructions were to preach repentance, drive out demons, and heal the sick in Jesus' name. In the second sentence, Jesus tells them to come away with him and rest a while. It would be nice for us to imagine that, between those two sentences, a look of amazed gratitude and pleasure crossed the face of Jesus as he hears of the kingdom proclaimed in his name, and how they didn't have to shake the dust off their feet anywhere. They deserved a rest! It might not be bad for us, when we gather together with Jesus as the apostles do today, to do this kind of debriefing, allowing the Lord to hear what we've sought to do in his name, our successes, our failures, our need to get away with him for a while to be fortified for further work in God's name.

For we, the baptized, are not only the flock of Jesus Christ; through water and the power of the Spirit we have also become the Body of Christ, the presence of the Shepherd for the life of the world.

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

Do you know a child or a teen who should begin preparing for the sacraments of First Communion or Confirmation? Does your child/teen have questions about our Catholic faith? Is your child 7 years old or older and not baptized? For more information about our Sacramental and ongoing Faith Formation programs, please contact the CFF office 650.588.8175 or the Rectory 650.583.4131 or send an email to cff@mdssf.org for registration information. Classes begin on Tuesday, Sept. 15th.

If you are traveling this summer with your family attend Mass in the city/town you are visiting. To find Mass times in that area check this website, www.masstimes.org. CFF families, please make sure to bring your child's "Passport to Heaven" and take a picture of the church or altar you visited or attended Mass. The children of the Faith Formation program will share their pictures and stories of the Catholic identity from many different cities and/or countries on October 4th during hospitality. If you do not have children in the CFF program, you are invited to share photos of churches you visited this summer on October 4th.

Questions of the Week:

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus affirm the importance of times for rest and renewal. Jesus wanted his disciples to come away and spend time alone with him. This is what we should seek in our life of prayer and in our celebration of the Eucharist.

We are blessed to have opportunities to choose how to spend our time. Jesus wants us to take time for rest and to spend time with him in prayer. As you plan for recreational activities this summer, you can set apart time for prayer too.

What can you do to encourage your family to make good choices about their activities this summer, including setting apart time for prayer each day?

Why do Catholics do That?

Asking questions helps us to grow spiritually. However, it is critical to find authoritative answers. While many books and websites may offer responses to Catholic questions, the truth comes from the Catechism of the Catholic Church, available from the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (www.usccbpublishing.org). It is also available in searchable format online on the USCCB website (www.usccb.org). Each week we will be featuring the most common questions that are asked about our faith and practices. Stay tuned to find out - Why do Catholics do that?

Behold, the days are coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David.

— Jeremiah 23:5a
