Twenty Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 13, 2015

Isaiah 50:5-9; Psalm 116;
James 2:14-18; Mark 8:27-35

SERVANT

Sometimes the hour and the person meet. Sometimes, when a task or mission is set upon our shoulders, we know we must meet our responsibilities and we are ready. These are heady and invigorating times. The first reading and the Gospel proclamation today are intimate glimpses of a commencement, an inauguration of a challenging future. In both readings, a sense of gravity prevails.

The first reading is from the mysterious Servant Songs from the book of Isaiah. The person is steadfast and brave. His courage and bravery are not located in his stout heart, but in God. We are reminded, "The Lord God opens my ear that I may hear" (Isaiah 50:4), so the servant understands the mission. And twice, "The Lord God is my help" (50:7, 9), so that the servant can endure the coming struggle.

For your convenience, you can also find this information on our church website.

Questions of the Week:

In this reading, Jesus teaches his disciples what they have gradually come to discover: He is indeed the Messiah. But he is a Messiah who must suffer and die. For Peter, the Messiah would not, could not, suffer. Judging by human standards, not God's, Peter failed to accept God's will for the Messiah. Jesus assured all his disciples that they, too, must suffer: deny themselves, take up the cross, and follow him.

*What "crosses" do you have to "take up" in your life right now?
Will you ask Jesus to help you?*

FAITH/BIBLE STUDY: First, close your eyes and ask the Holy Spirit for guidance before reading the rest of this paragraph. (Pause for prayer, then continue to the next paragraph.)

Do you want to delve deeper into your faith? Does what the Catholic Church believe and teach have its roots in Scripture? Join us on Saturday mornings at 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. (or 12:00, depending on discussions). The deeper you go into learning about your faith, gives you a stronger relationship with God and His one, holy, catholic, and apostolic church. More information, call Diana Powell 650-922-3941.

Why do Catholics do That?

... light prayer candles?

Even the most fervent and prayerful person gets distracted while praying on occasion. Praying in front of a candle gives us a tool to help us focus and avoid distraction. A similar principle applies to candles in church. When we light prayer candles in church, our intentions remain present even when we are gone. Next time you pass a candle rack, help prolong others' prayers by offering one for the intentions of the people who lit them.

Used with permission. Partners in Faith - Helping our children grow in their Catholic faith.

Priest's Retirement Fund Second Collection, September 19 & 20, 2015

The Archdiocese is blessed to have hundreds of priests who dedicated, in some cases, as many as 50 years or more of their lives to ministering to us. Even in retirement, many continue to give of themselves in countless ways of service for which we are grateful. Next weekend, our parish will participate in the special collection for the Priest's Retirement Fund. Please prayerfully reflect on how you can best contribute to this special collection.
