THE FIRST SUNDAY of ADVENT

November 29, 2015

Jeremiah 33:14-16; Psalm 25;
1 Thessalonians 3:12 — 4:2; Luke
21:25-28, 34-36

THE COMING KINGDOM

Jeremiah could see it coming—the kingship of Jesus and the restoration of Jerusalem. But was anybody listening? Is anybody listening now? It must have been tough being a prophet, but Jeremiah was persistent in his message because he knew that it needed to be heard. Also persistent in his message is Paul as he encourages the Thessalonians—and all of us—to live in accordance with the kingship that Jeremiah foretold. He encourages us to conduct ourselves in ways of holiness so that we may be well prepared for the king's coming. Finally, Jesus himself tells us to be ever diligent so that we may gain favor before our God and King.

Jeremiah could see the kingship of Jesus coming. As we begin the season of Advent, Paul and Jesus tell us not only how to prepare for the Kingdom, but how to live it day to day.

STOP PHYSICIANS ASSISTED SUICIDE

Stop assisted suicide in California before it's too late! Earlier this year, through a Special Session, the CA legislature passed assisted suicide, allowing doctors to prescribe overdose medication to terminally ill patients. Join a coalition of physicians, nurses, disability-rights organizations, and people of all faiths to stand for the lives of our elderly and dying and oppose assisted suicide. On Sundays throughout the rest of the year, referendum petitions will be available for signature outside of Masses. Signers must be registered to vote and can only sign once.

O God, Source of all life and hope, look kindly on our brothers and sisters facing the end of their lives. Amen.

HELP CHILDREN LOVE THE MASS

Are your children having trouble being "present" for the entire Mass? Here are a few suggestions to help them find their place at Mass; – Try to go the same Mass each week. – they will look forward to seeing the same faces or activities in church. – Be a model for your children. – participate fully by singing, following along in your book, and watching what is happening at the altar. – See and be seen. – Sit in a place where you can each have an unobstructed view of the celebration of Mass. Watching the priest makes children more aware of what's going on during the Mass. As they get older, they understand that sitting up front makes them more accountable for their behavior. By helping them make Mass more meaningful it will become more meaningful for the whole family.

Questions of the Week:

Today's reading might seem to be a real "downer." Just as we are beginning the new liturgical year, we hear Jesus' reminders to "be vigilant" and "pray." Advent is a time of preparation for Jesus' final coming. Jesus, the just one, who will judge us in the final days of human history, wants us to be able to stand up like true Christians when that time comes.

What will you do to show that you have heard Jesus' words on this first day of Advent? How can we be ready for Jesus to come?

VOLUNTEER TO LIGHT THE ADVENT WREATH

If you or your family would like to light the Advent Wreath at one of our Sunday Masses during this holy season, please sign up for the day and time that best fits your schedule. The sign-up sheet will be in the vestibule. If you have any questions, please contact the CFF office at 650-588-8175 or email cff@mdssf.org. Thank you for participating in this Mater Dolorosa tradition!
