THIRD SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

January 22, 2017

Isaiah 8:23 — 9:3; Psalm 27;
1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17; Matthew 4:12-23

LIBERATION AND REFORM

While you might have to reach for an atlas to determine that Isaiah is speaking about Galilee, today's first reading (part of which was read at Christmas) is prophetic of Jesus' future ministry in that province. The light that brings salvation and rejoicing is, ultimately, Christ. Liberation is the theme: liberation from both ignorance ("darkness") and sin (the "yoke").

As Isaiah identifies a place, so Paul describes an attitude: the attitude that develops, even among good people, of equating their own will with the common good. This always brings dissension, and so it has done in Corinth. Paul will not allow this; we are all members of "Christ's party." The gospel is not to divide us.

Matthew quotes from Isaiah in today's Gospel, presenting Jesus as the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecies. The theme is "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matthew 4:17). To spread this message, Jesus begins to select disciples, four of whom we meet today: Peter, Andrew, James, and John. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Questions of the Week:

Today's Gospel describes the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. It tells us that the fishermen (Peter and Andrew, James and John) dropped everything to follow Jesus immediately. Jesus called people to repent, which means "to turn around" or "to change one's mind." He calls each and every one of us to turn around our lives and make following him our most important priority. We experience the Kingdom or the Reign of God whenever we allow Jesus to reign as the most important thing in our lives.

Reflect on the example of the first disciples who dropped everything to follow Jesus. Does your schedule give evidence that you put God first in your life? What might you do to better reflect that God is your priority?

THANK YOU FR. RUFINO GEPIGA

Please join us in a Thank You Reception for Father Rufino on Sunday, February 5th following the 12:00 p.m. Mass in the parish hall. If you would like, please bring a finger food (something that does not require a fork), for this pot luck event. We hope to see you there to thank Fr. Rufino for his service to Mater Dolorosa during Fr. Roland's absence.

Why do we need the Sacraments?

If we were to rely only on ourselves to be good, we wouldn't get far. Humans have a natural tendency to make selfish choices and choose what is easy rather than to choose God and what is right. That is called "concupiscence" – an inclination to sin. Through faith, we discover that we are God's children and that he gives us strength by sharing his divine life with us. We call this strength, "grace." Grace comes to us through the Sacraments.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES SUNDAY 2016 IMPACE Your Contributions Changed Thousands of Lives

Every day for the last 110 years, parishioners like you have put your faith into action through your support of Catholic Charities, which was founded in 1907 as the social services arm of the Catholic Church in San Francisco, Marin, and San Mateo Counties. Last May, during the Catholic Charities Sunday Second Collection at 93 churches in the Archdiocese, parishioners like you collectively contributed more than $219,000 to change the lives of our neighbors in need. Your donations helped 3,503 individuals avoid homelessness and receive housing; and 5,333 women and men get affordable and ethical legal immigration services. You helped 26,855 children participate in healthy development for lifelong success, and 1,628 seniors and adults with disabilities receive the gift of independence. To review our Impact Report for 2016, visit www.CatholicCharitiesImpact.org.

Thank you for your sustained support as we continue to serve those who come to us in need.
