EASTER SUNDAY of the Resurrection of the Lord

April 16, 2017

Acts 10:34a, 37-43; Psalm 118;
1 Corinthians 5:6b-8; John 20:1-9

REJOICE AND BE GLAD

“This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad” (Psalm 118:24). Let us remember that these words of today’s responsorial psalm are not only sung from the hearts of those gathered in our parish. They are also sung by the poor in tiny barrios throughout Central and South America. They are sung by those denied religious freedom in our world; these Christians lift their voices in clandestine places of worship. These words are sung by people who have lost loved ones to acts of terrorism and war around the globe. Even in the midst of conflict and division, Christians still come together to declare that poverty, loneliness, violence, and division will never, ever have as much power as the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Indeed, let us rejoice this day and be glad!

On behalf of my family, I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude for your prayers and support at the death of my mother. Your kind gesture gave us so much comfort and strength. May God raise up those who have fallen asleep in the Risen Christ, and grant them eternal life. Amen.

Question of the Week:

When Jesus died on the cross, everyone who loved him was sad because they didn't know about this new life yet. They thought that Jesus would never be with them again. They took his body down from the cross and buried it in a tomb. Then on Easter Sunday something very surprising happened.

What did they find? What would you have thought when you found the stone removed and Jesus' tomb empty?

PARISHIONER OF THE YEAR

We are happy and proud to announce that this year's Parishioner of the Year Award will go to Eleanor Fuse. Eleanor not only serves in the Mater Dolorosa Ladies Club, she is a Eucharistic Minister, she volunteers to work in the Rectory Office, she helps out with Helping Hands, Eleanor volunteers for the Second Harvest Brown Bag Program, she coordinates and washes the altar linens for the altar, and she drives many parishioners to the doctor, shopping and to Mass. Eleanor humbly performs countless other services for our parish community, without acknowledgement or thanks; too many to list. She is involved in many aspects of our parish community and we are lucky to have her as this year's Parishioner of the Year. The Awards Breakfast will be on April 23rd at All Soul's Church's cafeteria.

RESPECT LIFE PROGRAM

The Archdiocesan Respect Life Program is sponsoring a conference at St. Mary's Cathedral Saturday, April 29, on "Restoring Affordable Catholic Health Care in the San Francisco Bay Area."
