Third Sunday of Easter

April 30, 2017

Acts 2:14, 22-33; Psalm 16;
1 Peter 1:17-21; Luke 24:13-35

ON THE ROAD

One central metaphor employed to describe the Christian life is a journey. In today's second reading, Peter addresses the early Christian community: "Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning" (1 Peter 1:17). When we think of a journey, we normally think of some kind of movement from point A to point B. The Christian journey, begun in the waters of baptism (point A) has as its ultimate destination eternal life with God in heaven (point B). Unfortunately we find ourselves on all kinds of detours along the way. Because of sin, we make foolish turns and sometimes seem unable to detect the presence of the Lord. Today's story of the two disciples on their way to Emmaus illustrates for us the fact that, even when we are dejected or on one of our many detours, the Lord is there, walking right beside us. We mourn the passing of Gabrielle Clausen, a long-time parishioner of Mater Dolorosa, who passed away on April 15th. May she rest in God's eternal care. We also say goodbye to our long-time parishioner, Gibson Alvaro, who passed away on April 24th. May Perpetual Light shine upon him.

Please pray for those who have passed and their families.

Question of the Week:

On the road to Emmaus, the disciples invite the stranger to stay with them. During the meal, in which they share in the breaking of the bread, the disciples' eyes are opened; they recognize the stranger as Jesus. In this week's Gospel, we hear how two of Jesus' disciples met Jesus as they walked from Jerusalem to the town of Emmaus but the disciples couldn't recognize Jesus until they saw him in action.

What are the two disciples doing when Jesus approaches them? Why do you think these disciples are leaving Jerusalem? What are their thoughts and feelings? Do the disciples recognize Jesus as he approaches them? What do the two disciples talk about with Jesus as they walk? How does Jesus respond to them? What happens during the meal?

SAVE THE DATE!

After many years of service to the Mater Dolorosa parish community, Monsignor Pernia will be leaving us for his new residence at Aegis Assisted Living in South San Francisco. Please join us for a pot-luck reception on May 21st, following the 12:00 p.m. Mass for a reception to thank Msgr. Pernia for his ministry with us. Please bring a dish to share. If you have any questions, you may call the rectory office at 650-583-4131. Thank you for your participation in this celebration of gratitude.
