Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 21, 2017

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17; Psalm 66;
1 Peter 3:15-18; John 14:15-21

PEOPLE OF HOPE

Throughout this Easter season the readings have drawn us into the experience of the early church. We have tasted the excitement and zeal of the first Christians. Now, with them, we listen to the words of Saint Peter, who reminds us that when people notice that we are people of hope, we should be ready to explain why. This challenges us. Do others even notice that we are people of hope? In a world often marked by cynicism and hopelessness, do we stand out as people who offer hope and reassurance to others? In today's Gospel Jesus promises that when he leaves the earth he will not leave us orphaned. Today he promises to send his Advocate, the Spirit of truth who will be with us always. Let us acknowledge the presence of the Holy Spirit and ask the Spirit to make us people of hope. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Please welcome Father Steven Maria Lopez, a guest priest this weekend, to speak to us about The Missionary Appeal. This special collection will replace our Helping Hands Collection.

Pope Pius X Recognition

Congratulations to Evelyn Villegas who was honored for her years of service to our Faith Formation program during the Pius X Recognition evening. Awards are presented to those who have given generous years of service through their time and talent in forming children and youth in the faith through the catechetical ministry. We are grateful for Evelyn and all that she does for the children of our parish.

Our catechists are living their baptismal call to share in Christ's prophetic work and the Church's evangelizing mission. They lovingly give of their time and talents sharing the Catholic Christian faith.

If you feel a "calling" or an interest in catechetical ministry as a catechist, catechist aide, office assistance or occasional hospitality helper, please get in touch with Fr. Roland or Felisa Cepeda.

Question of the Week:

In today's Gospel, Jesus promises his disciples that even though he will leave them, he will not abandon them. Instead they will receive a great gift, a helper, who will reveal to them the great love that exists between the Father, the Son, and the disciples.

How do you think the disciples felt when they heard these words? Who is the Advocate? How do you think the disciples will feel after they receive this gift of the Holy Spirit?
