THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

June 18, 2017

1 Corinthians 10:16-17; John 6:51-58

TRUST IN JESUS

The bread that I will give is my flesh
for the life
of the world

Today's feast celebrates another central mystery of our faith—the mystery of the Eucharist. Like the mystery of the Trinity, the real presence of the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist can never be fully understood, but can only be believed. Just as the Israelites in the desert were invited to put their trust in God's word to them, we are invited to trust wholly in the word of Jesus. In today's Gospel Jesus promises to give us a share in his very own flesh and blood, and a share in eternal life besides. We are called to take him at his word and open our hearts to receive true nourishment and life from our participation in the Eucharist.

THE WILD GOOSE

Discovering a Deeper Relationship with the HOLY SPIRIT
At Mater Dolorosa

You may attend on Thursdays beginning on June 15th at 7:00 p.m. or Saturdays, beginning on June 17th at 9:00 a.m. Fr. Dave Pivonka, TOR, guides us on a journey to help us find The Wild Goose—a term that the ancient Celts had for the Holy Spirit. There is a wildness to the Holy Spirit that most don't know. What is your experience of the Holy Spirit? God wants us to encounter and have a relationship with the Holy Spirit that will take us on the greatest adventure imaginable; a journey to the very Heart of God. Such is the power of The Wild Goose.

Registration is necessary, if you want a $10.00 workbook. Contact Diana Powell for more information at Diana@mdssf.org.

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

In today's reading, Jesus is telling us about the special gift he gives us in the Eucharist. In the Eucharist, the bread and the wine become the Body and Blood of Christ. When we share in the Eucharist, Jesus is present to us, and through our communion we will share eternal life.

*What kind of bread does Jesus say he will give?
Where does this living bread come from? What will this bread do for those who eat it?
What else does Jesus say about this bread?
What do you think Jesus is talking about?*

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

At the heart of today's solemnity is a Eucharistic procession, held in many parishes, that calls to mind the procession of Holy Thursday, yet has a purpose different from the somber adoration in the night watch. In the late Middle Ages, a procession through the city with the Blessed Sacrament was an occasion of heartfelt joy and great emotion. In a time when people seldom approached the altar to receive Holy Communion, the procession through the streets, past homes and workplaces, was a vibrant reminder that Christ was with them as a dear companion and guide.

Every year on this day, a joyful procession winds through the streets of Rome from the Lateran cathedral. A few years ago, Pope John Paul II, deeply moved at the sight of the throng accompanying the sacred host, said that we ought to feel profoundly united with the faithful everywhere in the world at such a moment. "Before our mind's eye all the Churches of the world, from East to West, from North to South, are present." Originally this feast was on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday, but after the calendar reform of 1970, its title was expanded from "Corpus Christi" to "The Body and Blood of Christ" and in the United States it was moved to the Sunday after Trinity Sunday. Even though Easter season ended two weeks ago, this beautiful feast is aglow with Easter light. —Rev. James Field, Copyright
