THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

November 5, 2017

Malachi 1:14b — 2:2b, 8-10; Psalm 131;
1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13; Matthew 22:34-40

THE GREATEST AMONG US

Whom do you admire? Is it the President of the United States or a movie star or a billionaire? These are people whom the world exalts as great. Like the Pharisees in today's Gospel, they have places of honor wherever they go. Would you like to follow in their footsteps?

The scriptures for today offer different examples for us to follow. Jesus tells us that the greatest among us are the servants. These are the people we are to honor and imitate. We are called to be like Paul, who worked hard to serve the needs of his communities, and Jesus, who gave his life in service to the world.

Question of the Week:

In today's Gospel, Jesus talks to the crowd about some of their religious leaders. In fact, he is rather critical of these religious leaders. Jesus explains that the Jewish leaders are so wrapped up in the privilege and honor that come with their position that they neglect to exercise true leadership.

What does Jesus say are the traits of a good leader? To whom does Jesus say that honor and glory belong?
