THE FOURTH SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

JANUARY 28, 2018

Deuteronomy 18:15-20; Psalm 95;
1 Corinthians 7:32-35, Mark 1:21-28

TRUE PROPHETS

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice. The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. Some false prophets were extremely popular and quite well-versed in scripture, and even held positions of authority. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous. Elsewhere, we also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. Today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths.

Questions of the Week

In this Sunday's Gospel, we hear that Jesus' fame spread throughout all of Galilee.

Why were the people astonished by what Jesus said? What amazing thing did Jesus do? Why did Jesus' fame spread?

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION of COMMUNION of the BLOOD OF CHRIST

Effective immediately, Mater Dolorosa is temporarily suspending the dispensing of the Precious Blood of Christ, due to the FLU SEASON, until further notice. If you are experiencing cold or flu symptoms, you may refrain from Mass attendance until you are well. According to the Memorandum from the Office of the Archbishop "It is important to remind the faithful that the obligation to attend Sunday Mass does not apply to those who are ill, especially those who suffer from contagious disease. It is a sign of consideration for others that those with flu-like symptoms remain at home. For the convenience of those who are homebound, or unable to attend Mass because of illness or infirmity, Mass is broadcast each Sunday morning at 6:00 AM on Channels 8, 20 (Comcast), KTSF 26."

Thank you for your consideration in this matter, and take care!

FOOD DRIVE

Please support our Confirmation candidates as they lead our parish food drive this Lenten season. All non-perishable food items will go to support the Catholic Worker Hospitality House in San Bruno. They operate a free dining room five mornings a week, a year-round homeless shelter, and permanent supportive housing for former guests in our community. Collection barrels will be in the vestibule of the Church and parish center lobby beginning Feb 14. PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

Dear parishioners,

A big thank you for the wonderful collection of baby items donated to The Gabriel Project at Epiphany! This generous act will make life easier for many moms, families and their newborn babies. May God bless you all for your kindness.

Cardinal Levada to Celebrate Mass for World Day of the Sick

Saturday, February 10, 11:00 am—St. Mary's Cathedral, 1111 Gough, Street, San Francisco

William Cardinal Levada is principal celebrant at a special 11:00 am Mass for World Day of the Sick on February 10, at which the Anointing of the Sick will take place. All are invited. The event is sponsored by the Order of Malta, which will arrange rides for people who need them. The Order of Malta says: "Bring a friend who is sick and experience a special time of prayer and sharing, of offering one's suffering for the good of the Church and of reminding everyone to see in his sick brother or sister the face of Christ...." The theme for this year's Day of the Sick is provided by the words that Jesus spoke from the Cross to Mary, his Mother, and to John: "Woman, behold your son... Son, behold your mother. And from that hour the disciple took her into his home" (John 19:26-27). The pope's message for 2018 is here. For information or assistance, please contact Kenneth Ryan, KM: at 415-613-0395 or kenmryan@aol.com.
