THE FOURTH SUNDAY of LENT

March 11, 2018

2 Chronicles 36:14-16, 19-23; Psalm 137;
Ephesians 2:4-10; John 3:14-21

COMMUNAL RESPONSIBILITY

The people of God forgot the covenant and flouted God's laws. They did not listen to the prophets among them, who spoke for God in warning them. Prophets are sent from God to remind us why we are here, but they are often, even in our own time, mocked, disregarded, and mistreated rather than thanked and listened to.

The book of Chronicles tells the results of these sins: the destruction of the temple and all of Jerusalem, murder, mayhem, and finally exile to a foreign land. Why are these stories in the Bible? Just to inform us of what happened to our ancient forebears? What good would that be unless there were a message and a warning for us as well? Are we people who follow the teachings of God, who obey the words of Christ in the second covenant in his blood? Or do we continue to wreak works of darkness and violence? We are reminded by these readings that we will be judged as a people, not just as individuals.

We will be discussing the new Faith Formation year 2018-2019. This is the 4th week of Lent. We hope that you are reading your family or student devotion booklets and praying daily. Questions of the Week:

Images of darkness and light are used in this Sunday's Gospel to help us reflect on the forgiveness of sins we receive through Christ Jesus.

*What does this Gospel reading tell us about why Jesus came into the world?
How does Jesus do this? In what sacrament do we experience God's forgiveness?*

As always we have a peaceful prayer vigil praying the Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy beginning each hour. Please call 650 992-6718 James or Eleanora to sign up for the day. We must have at least two persons present each hour. We will also be there after Mass two weeks before to accept parishioners to sign up for this most important prayer vigil. ENCOUNTER LENT - 4TH WEEK OF LENT ENCOUNTER ANDRISE

We encounter Andrise, a teacher in Haiti who knows the importance of forming young people who will give back to the community—and their country. Reflect on the role teachers have played in bringing you closer to God and your community. How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

Our New Parish Center

We are happy to announce that we have moved into our new Parish Center which was the former school lobby. We have centralized the pastor's office, the rectory office, and the CFF office. All parish transactions will now take place in our new location.

Please drop by for a look!
