EASTER SUNDAY

April 1, 2018

Acts 10:34, 37-43; Psalm 118;
Colossians 3:1-4; John 20:1-9

PROCLAIM THE RISEN CHRIST

On Easter morning everything—the spring weather, the flowers, birds and butterflies, the people around us in their finery, the beautiful liturgy and music—everything seems to bear witness that Jesus Christ is risen today! Like the eyewitness accounts in today’s scriptures, the glorious and joyful life all around us helps us to believe the good news of the Resurrection and sing “Alleluia!”

In the scriptures today we hear from Peter and Paul and John. All three speak with conviction about witnessing the resurrected Christ. John’s Gospel account includes Mary of Magdala, who also was privileged to witness the Resurrection and tell others the good news. On this glorious Easter Sunday can we ourselves give eyewitness accounts that Jesus Christ is risen today, alive and active in our lives?

Questions of the Week:

During Lent we prepared ourselves to remember and celebrate Jesus' death and resurrection. During the season of Easter, the Church asks us to reflect and meditate upon Jesus' Resurrection and what it means for us as Jesus' disciples today. In today's Gospel we hear about what happened on the morning of the third day after Jesus' death.

*Mary of Magdala found something unusual when she visited Jesus' tomb.
What did she find? What did Mary do next?
If you were Mary of Magdala, Simon Peter, or the Beloved Disciple, what would you have thought when you found the stone removed and Jesus' tomb empty?*

PARISHIONER OF THE YEAR RICK KARLEGAN

Our Congratulations go to Rick Karlegan as our Parishioner of the Year! Rick is dedicated to Mater Dolorosa Church, and is always on hand to guide us with technical support, he's a big part of the Bible Study program, and is faithful in his Catholic religion. Rick has raised his daughters to be participating Catholics and are helpful as volunteers for many events and sacramental programs at MD. He is a member of the Knights of Columbus, a Eucharistic Minister, and helps out with our CFF Religious Programs. Rick is a large part of our parish community! Thanks, Rick, for your good Catholic faith, your support of Mater Dolorosa Parish in your generosity with your talents, time and treasure! There will be a celebration breakfast to honor Rick at St. Veronica Church, on Sunday April 8th. Mass is at 8:30 a.m. followed by breakfast at 9:30 a.m. Please call the parish center to make your reservation by April 5th.

Our Religious Education and Parish Offices will be closed on Easter Monday.

FORTY DAYS FOR LIFE

James and Eleanora Rivera would like to thank some members of the Legion of Mary, Saint Vincent de Paul, Knights of Columbus, M.D.

parishioners and the few other people who came from other parishes for volunteering their time to participate in the prayer vigil in front of the Planned Parenthood in San Mateo. We got rained on, but hung in there, until the rain finally stopped. We were able to pray 34 Rosaries together with the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and the Litany for the unborn. It took real commitment by everyone to stay on track each hour praying these prayers. All you who came will be a part of this victory when abortion is ended. God bless you all.

The Mater Dolorosa Parish Community would like to thank James & Eleanora Rivera for their 18-year ministry for Pro-Life issues. After years of dedication to this important cause, they must retire. We thank them for all their efforts!
