DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 8, 2018

Acts 4:32-35; Psalm 118;
1 John 5:1-6; John 20:19-31

SO THAT YOU MAY BELIEVE

It is not often that the author of one of the books of the Bible comes right out and tells us directly why he is writing what he is writing. In this Sunday's Gospel reading, taken from the conclusion of John's Gospel, the author tells us that he has chosen to record these events so "that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name" (20:31).

The letter of John echoes this idea by saying that "everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God" (5:1)—what we might refer to as being "born again." Our reading from the Acts of the Apostles for this Second Sunday of Easter shows us exactly what it looks like when believers are born again through faith.

NEW AUXILIARY BISHOP

The Archdiocese of San Francisco announces that Pope Francis has today appointed Fr. Robert Christian, O.P., as auxiliary bishop. Fr. Christian is a Friar of the Western Dominican Province and currently serves as Master of Students of the province.

Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone said, "I am overjoyed to welcome Fr. Christian back to his native San Francisco. We first met while studying in Rome some forty years ago and we are now all blessed that Bishop-Elect Christian joins us to serve our priests, religious, deacons and all the people of the Archdiocese." Robert Francis Christian was born in San Francisco in 1948 to Robert Francis and Gloria Jean Christian. He was raised in St. Brendan Parish and attended St. Brendan and St. Vincent de Paul grammar schools. In 1966 he graduated from St. Ignatius High School and from Santa Clara University in 1970. That year he entered the Dominican Novitiate in Oakland.

Fr. Christian was ordained in 1976 at St. Francis de Sales Cathedral in Oakland and started his teaching career immediately thereafter at Dominican College. After later receiving his doctorate in theology at the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas (The Angelicum) in Rome he began a long teaching career there as professor of theology. He is presently a consultant to the Pontifical Council for Christian Unity and a member of the Anglican-Roman Catholic International Commission. Bishop-Elect Christian said "I am delighted to minister in the area where I was born and raised, and where I have numerous relatives and friends. I know I can count on the prayers of many people, and I am eager to serve the people of the City and Archdiocese that I call home."

His Episcopal ordination is planned to take place at St. Mary's Cathedral by the beginning of summer.

Questions of the Week:

The Gospel this week tells how difficult it was for Jesus' followers to believe in him once he had died and left their sight. So Jesus appeared to them. When the disciples saw Jesus, they believed. When he appear to them, he gave them a special job. He asked them to help others to know him by demonstrating his greatest trait—his loving forgiveness.

*What are Jesus' words of greeting to the disciples? What gift does Jesus give to his disciples?
What does Jesus tell his disciples to do? How did Jesus begin the process of reconciliation for the disciples?*

PARISHIONER OF THE YEAR RICK KARLEGAN

Our Congratulations go to Rick Karlegan as our Parishioner of the Year! Rick is dedicated to Mater Dolorosa Church, and is always on hand to guide us with technical support, he's a big part of the Bible Study program, and is faithful in his Catholic religion. Rick has raised his daughters to be participating Catholics and are helpful as volunteers for many events and sacramental programs at MD. He is a member of the Knights of Columbus, a Eucharistic Minister, and helps out with our CFF Religious Programs. Rick is a large part of our parish community! Thanks, Rick, for your good Catholic faith, your support of Mater Dolorosa Parish in your generosity with your talents, time and treasure!
