FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 29, 2018

Acts 9:26-31; Psalm 22;
1 John 3:18-24; John 15:1-8

LIVING BRANCHES

The Gospel and second reading for this Fifth Sunday of Easter emphasize the need for us to remain in Christ, and he in us. This shared life finds expression in the image of the one vine and many branches. We become living branches of the vine, members of the Body of Christ through baptism, Eucharist, and confirmation, sacraments of sharing God's own life. The First Letter of John describes the fruit of this vine as active love of neighbor: "And his commandment is this: we should believe . . . and love one another" (1 John 3:23).

Our first reading from Acts shows us an example of someone who shares in Christ's life in the person of Saint Paul. Paul's fearless witness, even at the risk of his life, is proof to everyone that the risen Lord's Spirit truly fills him with life and is bearing fruit in him.

Questions of the Week:

As Christians, we want to be good disciples of Jesus. This Sunday's Gospel reading helps us know what will make us good disciples.

What will a disciple of Jesus do? What do you think Jesus means by this?

What does Jesus say will allow a person to bear this kind of fruit?

On May 1st Archbishop Cordileone will come to Mater Dolorosa to celebrate with the Contemplatives of Saint Joseph the Promises of Fr. Vito, the Simple Vows of Br. Chris, the Investiture of the Habit on Fr. Michael and the beginning Postulancy of two Sisters of the Contemplatives of Saint Joseph. We will begin with a ceremony which celebrates these special moments in the life of a Religious Order and it will be followed by a beautifully sung Mass in the Extraordinary Form (Latin Mass). There will be a reception afterwards. If you would like to attend, please RSVP cosj.rsvp@gmail.com, before April 30th .

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES FOR SALE

Beautiful hand-made olive wood religious articles made by Catholic families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem will be on sale the second weekend of May the 12th and 13th after all Masses. Bethlehem Artworks is a non-profit organization that provides assistance to over 100 plus suffering families each week. The religious articles are made by Christian families in the Holy-Land, and are their means of spreading the word of Jesus, a goal that began two thousand years ago. Crafting the religious articles is the primary means for providing for the livelihood of Christian families in the Holy Land. Please stop by our tables and take a look at our beautiful handmade rosaries, statues, crosses and nativities. They will make a wonderful present for family and friends.
