SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

May 6, 2018

Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48; Psalm 98;
1 John 4:7-10; John 15:9-17

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

In the Gospel for the Sixth Sunday of Easter we are met with an extraordinary challenge: Jesus commands us to “love one another as I love you” (John 15:12). The letter from John echoes this command. Of course, we are to love those in our family, those we work with, those we like. But the scriptures make clear that we are also to love those we never notice, those we purposely avoid, and even those we are tempted to despise.

In this Sunday’s selection from the Acts of the Apostles Peter shows us how far God’s love extends, and how far our love should extend in response. Peter realizes that God no longer “shows partiality” to the Jews, sharing divine love exclusively with them. Christ has revealed that God’s love extends to all people, and so should ours.

Questions of the Week:

In today's Gospel, Jesus commands his disciples to love one another as he has loved them. Jesus spoke these words to his disciples during the Last Supper.

Do you remember what Jesus did during the Last Supper to show his disciples how he wanted them to love one another?

What do we know that Jesus will do soon after the Last Supper to show his love for his disciples?

What obstacles do we sometimes face when we try to show our love for another person?

Sometimes the sacrifices we are called to make for others are small. But these small choices to love and to serve others prepare us for the larger choices and sacrifices that we may be called upon to make. If we are people who have practiced showing our love for others with generosity, we will also be people who are willing to lay down our lives for those we love.

Please pray for our young ladies and men who have prepared to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. They will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation this coming Saturday, May 12 at 10 am at the Cathedral of Saint Mary of the Assumption in San Francisco. Everyone is invited to attend this special Mass at 10:00 am.

RELIGIOUS ARTICLES FOR SALE

Beautiful hand-made olive wood religious articles made by Catholic families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem will be on sale the second weekend of May the 12th and 13th after all Masses.

Bethlehem Artworks is a non-profit organization that provides assistance to over 100 plus suffering families each week. The religious articles are made by Christian families in the Holy-Land, and are their means of spreading the word of Jesus, a goal that began two thousand years ago. Crafting the religious articles is the primary means for providing for the livelihood of Christian families in the Holy Land. Please stop by our tables and take a look at our beautiful handmade rosaries, statues, crosses and nativities. They will make a wonderful present for family and friends.
