TENTH SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

June 10, 2018

Genesis 3:9-15; Psalm 130;
2 Corinthians 4:13 — 5:1; Mark 3:20-35

PROMISES

Today's liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God's will makes us "family" with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

HAVE A HOLY SUMMER! The lazy days of summer offer many opportunities to bring your family closer to God. Try ideas like these to have a happy and holy summer: Sing a psalm. Choose a psalm that praises God for his mercy, kindness, and love, such as Psalm 103. Learn a new line each week and sing or recite it together at dinner time or bed time. By summer's end, you will have learned a new way to praise God. Strengthen a virtue. Virtues are good habits. For example, temperance can be practiced by limiting the amount of time spent watching television or using electronics. Charity can be strengthened by volunteering for a local aid organization as a family. Read a story. The Bible is a library of books that weave together the story of our family of faith. Read about heroes, brave rulers, warriors, prophets and thrilling victories. For example, the -first book of Samuel (chapter 16) begins the account of David, a poet and musician, warrior and king with an extraordinary love for God. Or, read about the remarkable journey Moses led out of slavery found in the book of Exodus." Visit him each week. Weekly Mass is an important way to bring your family closer to God. Even when you are on vacation, visit www.parishesonline.com or www.masstimes.org to find a Mass in the area you are on vacation.

Don't forget to take your "Passport to Heaven" with you as you travel. When you go to Mass, take your picture at the churches you visit and send them to cff@mdssf.org. The children will share their pictures and stories when we have our beginning of the school year Mass in October.

Enrollment for the 2018-19 faith formation year is in progress. New and current students must register for the new faith formation year. Please pick up registration form and information from the vestibule, the Parish Center lobby or the CFF Office.

Questions of the Week:

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus talk about what one must do to be his follower. As Christians, we are called to show love for God and one another in the same way we show love for the members of our family. We do not choose the family we are born into, but we do choose to be part of Jesus' family. When Jesus returns to his hometown, how does his family react to him?

What are some ways you can choose to do God's will in your daily life?

RCIA

Interested in becoming Catholic? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is for adults, 18 years and older, who are interested in becoming members of the Catholic Church. RCIA meets weekly from September through Pentecost. During this period of time candidates learn about Jesus Christ and his invitation to be a disciple through membership and participation in the life of His Church. A time of discernment, commitment, and membership are built into the program. To learn more, contact Diana Powell at diana@mdssf.org.
