Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 1, 2018

Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24; Psalm 30;
2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15; Mark 5:21-43

O LORD, BE MY HELP

Today we encounter readings that draw us into the mystery of suffering and death. In the past few years we have witnessed the devastation of life and property through earthquakes and hurricanes. So many lifted their lament to God, simply asking, "Why?" This is an honest expression of anger toward a God who we believe is the giver of life. When we lose a loved one, we can wonder why the presence of Christ is not enough to make that person rise, even from death, as did the little girl in today's Gospel passage. Again we raise our voices and ask, "Why?" At moments such as these, let us make the prayer of the psalmist our own: "Hear, O Lord, and have pity on me; O Lord, be my helper." Let us pray that our mourning will one day be turned into dancing.

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS

A Biblical Walk Through the Mass Study

Do you understand the meaning behind the parts of the Mass? In his video-based study A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, Dr. Edward Sri explores the roots of the words and gestures we experience at Mass and explains their profound significance. In this study, you will come to know and understand the Mass as never before, leading you to a richer, more fruitful worship experience.

Join us for A Biblical Walk Through the Mass here at Mater Dolorosa. This study begins on Saturday, July 7th at 9:00 a.m., OR Thursday, July 12th at 7:00 p.m. It is a five week study and is held in the Parish Center, Multipurpose Room. There is a cost of $20 for the book and workbook that accompany the classes. For more information or to register for the study, contact Diana Powell at 650-922-3941 (leave voicemail and the best time to return your call) or via email: diana@mdssf.org.

RCIA

Interested in becoming Catholic? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is for adults, 18 years and older, who are interested in becoming members of the Catholic Church. RCIA meets weekly from September through Pentecost. During this period of time candidates learn about Jesus Christ and his invitation to be a disciple through membership and participation in the life of His Church. A time of discernment, commitment, and membership are built into the program. To learn more, contact Diana Powell Powell at 650-922-3941 (leave voicemail and the best time to return your call) or via email: diana@mdssf.org.

Today we are taking the Peter's Pence Collection, which supports the charitable works of Pope Francis. This collection is taken up by Catholics around the globe and helps the Holy Father reach out to people suffering in our world, especially those enduring the effects of war and violence, natural disasters, and religious persecutions. Envelopes are available in the vestibule. Please be generous. Thank you.

ALTAR SERVER'S TRAINING

Have you ever wondered what it's like up on the altar during Mass? Ever wanted a closer look at what it's all about? Well, the altar servers would like to invite you to join their ministry! We are seeking children, teens and young adults who would like to become more involved by serving at Mass. We will provide the training. All you have to do is show up with enthusiasm and a heart that's ready to participate in Mass in a new way. There will be a training session on July 14 at 9:30am. Please see Deacon Alex or Mr. Carlos after Mass.

SERVING OTHERS IN GOD'S LOVE - RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK

We are called to follow Christ as missionary disciples by serving others and living our faith in all that we do. Let us take a few moments each day from June 22 - June 29 to pray, reflect, and take action on religious liberty, both here in this country and abroad.

Serving Others in God's Love
Religious Freedom Week
June 22-29, 2018

We mourn the loss of our long-time parishioner, Mary Dunleavy, who passed from this life to Eternal Life on June 24th. Let us remember "May" and her family in our prayers. May Perpetual Light shine upon her.

PASSING ON OUR BELIEFS

Who passed on this faith to you? Were you influenced by someone who had a special relationship with both the Lord and the Catholic tradition? Our bishops remind us that, as parents, we are the primary catechists of our children: "While the catechesis offered within the family is ordinarily informal, unstructured, and spontaneous, it is no less crucial for the development of the child's faith." The Greek root of the word catechist means "to echo." We live our lives, and we connect them to what's gone before us — we echo. We draw connections between the Gospel and what's happening in life. We celebrate our holy feasts in our sanctuaries and our homes. We mark the chapters of our lives through the sacraments. We say the prayers. We support others through generosity and action. We work for justice in our families and our communities. In doing these things, we echo the faith that has gone before us. We only need to look towards our grandmothers who loved the Lord and were not afraid to show it. Are you willing to share your time and love for the Lord with the children and families of our parish? Please see Fr. Roland or Felisa Cepeda for more information.
