Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 29, 2018

2 Kings 4:42-44; Psalm 145;
Ephesians 4:1-6; John 6:1-15

WEEKLY MIRACLE

This week marks the beginning of a kind of “liturgical de-tour.” We have been listening to Saint Mark’s Gospel during this liturgical year (Year B). Today we begin to hear a long section from John’s Gospel, starting with the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. This miracle story is a prelude to the Lord’s statements that we will begin hearing in a few weeks, in which Jesus refers to himself as the “bread of life.” Each week we witness a miracle at Mass. We do not see a multiplication of loaves before us. What our eyes of faith allow us to see is the miracle of the transformation of common elements—bread and wine—into the Lord’s Body and Blood. Once we have received the Lord, the multiplication begins, for in the Eucharist we are strengthened to multiply our efforts to feed the poor, shelter the homeless, and bring comfort to the despairing.

Questions of the Week:

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus invites his disciples to make a contribution to the work he wants to do. However, the disciples are reluctant to help, thinking that they do not have what is needed.

*Seeing the crowd approaching him, what did Jesus want to do?
What did Philip answer when Jesus asked where they could buy food?
What did the disciple Andrew tell Jesus? Did Jesus think that this was enough?*

Mater Dolorosa Church
First Saturday Devotions
Saturday 8 am to 9:30 am Mass and Rosary

The devotion consists of these 4 points:

- ◆ Confession (8 days before or after the first Saturday)
- ◆ Attend Mass and receive Holy Communion
- ◆ Rosary
- ◆ 15 minute meditation on the 20 Holy Mysteries

Most important in our First Saturday devotions is the fervor with which we perform them, specifically as acts of reparation for sins against the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Our Lady of Fatima summed up the motive of all of her apparitions and requests with these poignant words: "So numerous are the souls which the justice of God condemns for sins committed against me, that I come to ask for reparation." This is the very heart of the First Saturday devotions. All are welcome to participate.
