Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 28, 2018

Jeremiah 31:7-9; Psalm 126;
Hebrews 5:1-6; Mark 10:46-52

THE HOPE AND PROMISE OF REDEMPTION

The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, the mothers and pregnant women. They shall be led along an easy road so that no one will stumble. The Lord's kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people.

Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God's love and care for us. "Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves" (Psalm 126:5-6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God.

Questions of the Week:

In today’s Gospel, we hear how a blind man’s persistence in asking Jesus for help was rewarded.

- What does Bartimaeus do when he hears that Jesus was passing by?*
- Why must he be persistent in calling out to Jesus? What does Bartimaeus do?*
- When Jesus stops and calls for him, what does Jesus do and say?*
- What do you think this might teach us about prayer?*

“Remembrance Altar” - “Altar de Muertos”

During the month of November, we join Christian churches throughout the world to pray for all who have passed through death into the eternal embrace of God. The altar de muertos (remembrance altar) is a tradition originating mainly in Mexico, but is observed in a number of other Latin American countries, for dia de los muertos (Day of the Dead/All Souls Day). Similar traditions related to the celebration of All Souls Day exist around the world to remember and honor the deceased. Everyone is invited to place a 5X6 photo of a loved one and a short story written on a note card to share. To ensure that priceless photos of your loved ones are not lost or destroyed, it is best to bring a photocopied photo. We will display the photos in the school lobby and vestibule

- First Reading: I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble.
 Psalm: The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.
 Second Reading: It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son; this day I have begotten you.
 Gospel: Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way.

2018 Volunteer APPRECIATION DINNER—Friday, November 16th. Call Fran at the Parish Center to make your reservations before Friday, November 9th. Please join us!
