Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 11, 2018

1 Kings 17:10-16; Psalm 146;
Hebrews 9:24-28; Mark 12:38-44

THE CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP

The core vocation in the Gospel of Mark is the vocation, or call, to discipleship. Today's Gospel passage provides us with one last example of what the vocation to discipleship means, and one example of what it doesn't mean. A destitute widow shows us that discipleship means following Jesus' way of service, even if it requires giving one's livelihood (or life). The scribes show us by their bad example that discipleship should entail a vocation to extend God's care to those who are most in need.

In our reading from the book of Kings another widow and her son are close to death. They too give what little they have, but they are rewarded by Elijah with food enough for a year. And the reading from the Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that Jesus sacrificed his life "to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him" (Hebrews 9:28).

Our Parish Center will be closed on Monday, November 12th in honor of Veteran's Day. Please pray for all those men and women who have served to keep us free.

Archbishop Asks Us to Pray with and for the U.S. Bishops

On October 31, Archbishop Cordileone sent a letter to the pastors of the Archdiocese about preparatory actions he and the other U.S. bishops will be taking in the week leading up to the fall meeting November 12-14 of the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops (USCCB). The bishops, including Archbishop Cordileone, dedicated Monday, November 5, through Sunday, November 11, to seven days of intensified prayer and sacrifice. Their intentions were:

For the healing and support of all victims of clergy sexual abuse.

For the conversion and just punishment of the perpetrators and those who concealed sexual abuse.

For the strength of the bishops to be holy shepherds in protecting and leading their sheep from all harm.

Noting that this is specifically an effort by the bishops, the Archbishop asked for the prayers of his brother priests for "an outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon all the bishops, especially during the General Assembly, where we will be making critical decisions in response to new revelations of abuse, especially sexual abuse and abuse of power, and its cover-up." In addition, the Archbishop asked pastors to share this information with the faithful and to invite the faithful to join him in praying for the intentions listed above, and for him and all bishops during the general assembly. He closed the letters by assuring all of us of his prayers for us, as well.
