Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 18, 2018

Daniel 12:1-3; Psalm 16;
Hebrews 10:11-14, 18; Mark 13:24-32

ENCOURAGEMENT

This Sunday's Gospel is our final selection from Mark for this liturgical year. It is taken from the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem immediately preceding the account of his arrest and passion. In it Jesus gives his disciples hope to sustain them through his passion and death and any persecution or suffering that they would encounter after his resurrection.

The words from the book of Daniel also provided hope and encouragement to the people of Daniel's time. The encouragement in these scriptures is meant for us as well, for none of us will escape tribulation in our lives. Followers of Jesus will be able to endure suffering with joyful hope, knowing that Christ's love will lead us along the way of discipleship and give us eternal life with God.

For questions about a CFF activity or event or our CFF program, please come by and visit the CFF office or call/email.

Questions of the Week:

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us there will be signs that will indicate that the end of the world is near.

What signs does Jesus say will signal the end times?

Do you think we will be able to predict the end times? Who does Jesus say knows when these things will happen?

ALL SOULS OFFERING ENVELOPES

You will find All Souls Day offering envelopes in your monthly packets, in which you may list the names of those you would like remembered. If you are not a registered parishioner, extra envelopes will be available in the vestibule of our church. Please turn your envelopes in to the Parish Center, or place them in the collection baskets during Mass. (DO not place them on the altar). All offering envelopes will then be returned to the altar, all during the month of November.

VOLUNTEER TO LIGHT THE ADVENT WREATH

If you or your family would like to light the Advent Wreath at one of our Sunday Masses during this holy season, please sign up for the day and time that best fits your schedule. The sign-up sheet will be in the vestibule beginning Nov 11. If you have any questions, please contact the CFF office at 650-583-4131 x2 or email cff@mdssf.org. Thank you for participating in this Mater Dolorosa tradition!

Archbishop Asks Us to Pray with and for the U.S. Bishops

On October 31, Archbishop Cordileone sent a letter to the pastors of the Archdiocese about preparatory actions he and the other U.S. bishops will be taking in the week leading up to the fall meeting November 12-14 of the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops (USCCB). The bishops, including Archbishop Cordileone, dedicated Monday, November 5, through Sunday, November 11, to seven days of intensified prayer and sacrifice. Their intentions were:

For the healing and support of all victims of clergy sexual abuse.

For the conversion and just punishment of the perpetrators and those who concealed sexual abuse.

For the strength of the bishops to be holy shepherds in protecting and leading their sheep from all harm.

Noting that this is specifically an effort by the bishops, the Archbishop asked for the prayers of his brother priests for "an outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon all the bishops, especially during the General Assembly, where we will be making critical decisions in response to new revelations of abuse, especially sexual abuse and abuse of power, and its cover-up." In addition, the Archbishop asked pastors to share this information with the faithful and to invite the faithful to join him in praying for the intentions listed above, and for him and all bishops during the general assembly. He closed the letters by assuring all of us of his prayers for us, as well.
