Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

November 25, 2018

Daniel 7:13-14; Psalm 93;
Revelation 1:5-8; John 18:33b-37

CHRIST IS KING

On the final Sunday of the liturgical year we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. It's easy to understand today's scriptures as events that happened long ago and far away, or predictions that will come true somewhere, some day. But they invite us to claim Christ as our King here and now.

Jesus' words to Pilate in the Gospel remind us that his kingdom transcends time and place. And the prophecies from Daniel and Revelation give us reason to be faithful to Christ our King right here and right now.

By concluding the year with this feast we are proclaiming our faith that Jesus Christ is the one and only King over all seasons, all peoples, and all of creation. No matter what nation we belong to or what language we speak, he "has made us into a kingdom" (Revelation 1:6)—one people united in love and peace for all eternity.

First Saturday Devotions
December 1, 2018
Saturday 8 am to 9:30 am Mass and Rosary

The devotion consists of these 4 points:

- ◆ Confession (8 days before or after the first Saturday)
- ◆ Attend Mass and receive Holy Communion
- ◆ Rosary
- ◆ 15 minute meditation on the 20 Holy Mysteries

Most important in our First Saturday devotions is the fervor with which we perform them, specifically as acts of reparation for sins against the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Our Lady of Fatima summed up the motive of all of her apparitions and requests with these poignant words: "So numerous are the souls which the justice of God condemns for sins committed against me, that I come to ask for reparation." This is the very heart of the First Saturday devotions.

All are welcome to participate.

First Reading: One like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship.
Psalm: The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.
Second Reading: Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead.
Gospel: For this I came into the world, to testify to the truth.
