The Second Sunday In Ordinary Time

January 20, 2019

Isaiah 62:1-5; Psalm: 96;
1 Corinthians 12:4-11; John 2:1-11

A VISIBLE GOD

We find it difficult to convey ideas to people unless we can actually show them something, demonstrate what we mean. God, who is invisible and truly beyond human understanding, apparently faces the same difficulty. People want to see, not just listen to an idea. So God gave us Jesus Christ, God made visible in the world.

During these past weeks we have seen how Jesus was revealed as an infant to the shepherds and the magi, and then began his adult "public life" at his baptism by John. Today's Gospel reading tells us of his "first sign," providing wine for the wedding guests at Cana.

Of course, even Jesus, God made visible, was not always easily understood in his own day, nor is he even now. So we have to ponder what we see: the poverty and simplicity of his birth, his humility and openness before John the Baptist, his kindness and compassion toward people in their ordinary problems, such as running short of wine at a wedding. Yet it is in coming to know Jesus that we come to know God.

Questions of the Week:

In today's Gospel, we hear about a time when Jesus' mother, Mary, noticed that something was wrong and asked Jesus to help address the need.

*What detail did Mary notice? What did Mary do to respond to the problem she noticed?
Why did Mary bring the problem to Jesus? How did Jesus respond to the situation?*

On behalf of Archbishop Salvatore J. Cordileone and the Archdiocese of San Francisco, the Order of Malta is very pleased to invite your parishioners to the annual Healing Mass celebrating World Day of the Sick. This Mass is celebrated each year on or near February 11th, the feast day of Our Lady of Lourdes.
