The Fourth Sunday In Ordinary Time

February 3, 2019

Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10; Psalm: 19;
1 Corinthians 12:12-30; Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

AN ONGOING MISSION

In his hometown synagogue, Jesus' neighbors are amazed by his words. Nevertheless, they remind each other, "Is this not Joseph's son?"

Surely the people know who he is. The carpenter's son. The young man who had learned in this very synagogue. The boy down the street.

Conflict arises as Jesus begins to define himself in a new way. When he compares himself to the ancient prophets Elijah and Elisha the tensions grow. The tensions multiply when Jesus begins to tell of a new mission for God's people: the good news of the scriptures is intended for all.

In his famous passage from the First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul reminds us of the eternal nature of love. Love does not come to an end. In today's readings, we are reminded that, like love, Jesus' mission cannot be contained. Jesus slips through the crowd of persecutors and moves on to new challenges. We are called to this same perseverance in the name of love.

First Reading: I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.
Psalm: I will sing of your salvation.
Second Reading: If I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.
Gospel: No prophet is accepted in the prophet's hometown.

Questions of the Week:

Today's Gospel describes what Jesus said to the people of his home town of Nazareth and their response. Listen carefully to this Gospel and consider Jesus' influence on the people of Nazareth.

What was the first response of the people of Nazareth to Jesus' words?

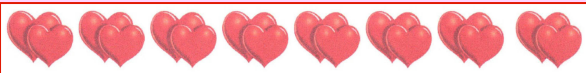

What do they want to do to Jesus at the end of the Gospel?

What happened in between?

FORMED™ Catholic Online Resources for Parishes

FORMED is the revolutionary Catholic digital platform that gives a parish unprecedented access to video-based study programs, feature films, audio presentations, and eBooks from the Church's foremost presenters. Archbishop Cordileone recommends it, and the Archdiocese is offering a subsidy to make it financially attractive. Once a parish subscribes to it, all FORMED resources are available on computers and mobile devices. Any parishioner, teacher in the Catholic school, or student in the Catholic school can access the hundreds of films (historical, current, real life, and animated), talks, and studies offered. Many large dioceses have promoted FORMED for all their parishes. Hundreds of parishes are now enthusiastic users because it has very helpful resources for evangelization/training. Everyone is welcome to take advantage of this resource! WATCH THE BULLETIN IN FUTURE WEEKS FOR "FORMED CORNER" that will offer ideas for you and your family to grow in FAITH.
