The Fifth Sunday In Ordinary Time

February 10, 2019

Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8; Psalm: 138;
1 Corinthians 15:1-11; Luke 5:1-11

GOD'S SUMMONS

Confronted with God's power and majesty, the first response of the prophet Isaiah was to acknowledge his sinfulness. "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips," he said aloud. Likewise, with his empty fishing nets dramatically filled at Jesus' instruction, Peter fell to his knees and cried out, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man."

Next, Peter got up. He docked his boats then left to follow Jesus. Isaiah also had a dramatic change of heart. When he heard the Lord say, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Isaiah answered, "Here I am, send me."

We are summoned daily by the Risen Lord. We are reminded of the saving power of the gospel and know in our heart of hearts that, as St. Paul wrote, believing in anything else won't lead to anything.

What will it take for you to move past your sinfulness? What will it take for you to get off your knees? What will it take for you to bring to dock what is unimportant and to accept your call to be God's messenger?

Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

First Reading:	Isaiah is called to be a messenger for the Lord and responds, "Send me!"
Psalm:	In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.
Second Reading:	Paul reminds us of the gospel he preached through which we are saved, if we believe it.
Gospel:	Jesus directs Simon to take his boat into deep water for a miraculous catch of fish.

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

Family Prayer is a wonderful and rewarding activity. Finding time and the opportunity is not always easy. For the next few weeks we will offer ideas/tips to help bring your family together in prayer. This week we will focus on prayer and the family meal. Learning how to pray together as a family takes commitment. If your family already gathers regularly for a family meal why not incorporate prayer into this routine. Learning the prayer before and after meals is a great way to start.

Prayer Before Meals

*Bless us, O Lord, and these thy gifts
which we are about to receive from thy bounty.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen*

Prayer After Meals

*We give you thanks for all your gifts, almighty God, living and reigning now and forever. Amen.
May the souls of the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.*

SACRAMENTAL CLASS REMINDERS:

First Communion classes (Level 2 and Sunday Older Communion class): SAVE the DATE! Saturday, Feb 23 8:30 a.m. – 12noon – First Reconciliation Family Retreat. Older Communion Sunday classes: There will be class on the following days Feb 10, 24 – please meet in the Grade 2 classroom at 11am. For questions about a CFF activity or event or our CFF program, please come by and visit the CFF office or call/email.

Questions of the Week:

In our democratic society, we choose many of our leaders by elections. But there are other people who are leaders not because of elections, but because of their personality and influence. In today's Gospel we hear about how Peter was chosen by Jesus to be a leader among the disciples.

What evidence is there that Simon Peter was a leader even before he chose to follow Jesus?

To whom was Jesus speaking when he spoke about "catching men?"

Is Simon Peter the only one who followed Jesus? What does Jesus say will be Simon Peter's new job?

FORMED™ Catholic Online Resources for Parishes

FORMED is the revolutionary Catholic digital platform that gives a parish unprecedented access to video-based study programs, feature films, audio presentations, and eBooks from the Church's foremost presenters. Archbishop Cordileone recommends it, and the Archdiocese is offering a subsidy to make it financially attractive. Once a parish subscribes to it, all FORMED resources are available on computers and mobile devices. Any parishioner, teacher in the Catholic school, or student in the Catholic school can access the hundreds of films (historical, current, real life, and animated), talks, and studies offered. Many large dioceses have promoted FORMED for all their parishes. Hundreds of parishes are now enthusiastic users because it has very helpful resources for evangelization/training. Everyone is welcome to take advantage of this resource! WATCH THE BULLETIN IN FUTURE WEEKS FOR "FORMED CORNER" that will offer ideas for you and your family to grow in FAITH.

Catholic Tradition

The Reign of God comes about because people commit to reversing their lives completely, to embracing new vision, new values. Many popular television shows exploit an unattractive side of human nature by pitting contestants against one another, even to the point of performing dangerous stunts or devious schemes, to gain money or favor.

At the liturgy, we counter that impulse by committing ourselves to live generously. In response to Christ's total gift, we offer bread and wine as the emblems of our lives, our hopes, our joys and sorrows. The bread and wine carried to the altar contain our lives, and by offering our lives to God, we prepare to receive the gift of God's own life. We are to become what we receive: the body of Christ.

On Sundays, this self-giving is often accompanied by a collection and procession of gifts for the poor and money for the upkeep of the parish. There are certainly other methods of collecting money, some perhaps more efficient. Yet the act of giving from our abundance, and attending to the needs of the poor, opens us up to participation in the changes the Reign of God requires. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

WARM COAT DRIVE

Thank you for your generosity! We collected over 300 warm coats for men, women and children that benefited our brothers and sisters at The Catholic Worker Hospitality House, Samaritan House Kids Closet and the St. Vincent Homeless Help Center. Thank you for caring that our brothers and sisters are warm during these cold months.
