The Sixth Sunday In Ordinary Time

February 17, 2019

Jeremiah 17:5-8; Psalm: 1;
1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20; Luke 6:17, 20-26

BLESSED

When we think of the word "Beatitude" we think of today's discourse from Luke's Gospel, or the more familiar one from Matthew (which begins "Blessed are the poor in spirit . . ."). Actually, beatitudes occur throughout the prophets and Gospels. Today in Jeremiah (with an echo in the psalm) we hear, "Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord" (Jeremiah 17:7). Following his resurrection in John's Gospel, Christ proclaims, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed" (John 20:29). The evangelists placed these sayings throughout the Gospels as short reminders about the characteristics that one will find in a follower of Christ, characteristics that will help spread the Good News in this life and lead to eternal blessings in the next. In Latin, the saints are called the Beati, the "Blessed," for they are the ones who lived the "blessed" life as described by Jesus throughout the Gospels. How blest are we, when we also strive to make our own days a living beatitude!

First Reading:	The one who trusts in the Lord is like a tree planted beside the waters.
Psalm:	Blessed are they who hope in the Lord.
Second Reading:	Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.
Gospel:	Blessed are you who are poor, hungry, weeping. Woe to you who are rich, filled, laughing.

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

Family Prayer is a wonderful and rewarding activity. Finding time and the opportunity is not always easy. For the next few weeks we will offer ideas/tips to help bring your family together in prayer. Last week we focused on prayer and the family meal. This week we will focus on prayer and how to pray. Have you ever wondered how to start your prayer and who should you pray for? Have you tried praying with your 5 fingers? This creative form of prayer has been around for a long time but recently has been credited to Pope Francis who uses this method to pray himself.

Start praying with your thumb. The thumb is the closest finger to you. Pray for the people in your life who are closest to you. The next finger is the index finger. Pray for the ones who teach you, instruct you, and heal you. They need the support and wisdom to show direction to others. The 3rd finger is the tallest one. It reminds us to pray for our leaders, those in the government and those who have authority. They need God's guidance. The 4th finger is the ring finger. It may surprise you to know that it is our weakest finger. It should remind you to pray for the weakest, the sick or those plagued by problems. They need your prayers. And finally we have our smallest finger, the pinkie. Your pinkie should remind you to pray for your own needs. When you are done praying for the other 4 groups you will be able to see your own needs from a different viewpoint.

SACRAMENTAL CLASS REMINDERS:

First Communion classes (Level 2 and Sunday Older Communion class): SAVE the DATE! Saturday, Feb 23 8:30 a.m. – 12noon – First Reconciliation Family Retreat. Older Communion Sunday classes: There will be class on the following days Feb 24, Mar 3 – please meet in the Grade 2 classroom at 11am. For questions about a CFF activity or event or our CFF program, please come by and visit the CFF office or call/email.

Questions of the Week:

In today's Gospel, Jesus challenges us to take a closer look at the ways we are living as his disciples. This reading calls us to simplify our life and change the notion of what society values.

Complete the following sentences:

Today, I will take one step toward the Kingdom by ...

One way in which I am poor is ...

I find true happiness in ...

FORMED™ Catholic Online Resources for Parishes

FORMED is the revolutionary Catholic digital platform that gives a parish unprecedented access to video-based study programs, feature films, audio presentations, and eBooks from the Church's foremost presenters. Archbishop Cordileone recommends it, and the Archdiocese is offering a subsidy to make it financially attractive. Once a parish subscribes to it, all FORMED resources are available on computers and mobile devices. Any parishioner, teacher in the Catholic school, or student in the Catholic school can access the hundreds of films (historical, current, real life, and animated), talks, and studies offered. Many large dioceses have promoted FORMED for all their parishes. Hundreds of parishes are now enthusiastic users because it has very helpful resources for evangelization/training. Everyone is welcome to take advantage of this resource! WATCH THE BULLETIN IN FUTURE WEEKS FOR "FORMED CORNER" that will offer ideas for you and your family to grow in FAITH.

Make a difference - Volunteer with Catholic Charities!

Serve as a mentor. Catholic Charities Immigration Services has partnered with the Archdiocese of San Francisco to launch the Catholic Accompaniment and Reflection Experience (CARE), a new pilot initiative committed to connecting Catholic volunteers with undocumented immigrants and their families. Volunteers will serve as mentors and provide one of the most vulnerable communities in our county with the support to integrate and comply with their immigration proceedings. If you are interested in making a difference in someone's life, please email Montserrat Ayala at MAyala@CatholicCharitiesSF.org.

Share your Catholic values. Help Catholic Charities provide 34,000 people with services ranging from housing, homelessness prevention, case management, senior care, to afterschool programs for disadvantaged children. We seek volunteers to share our work. Help us provide goods to our families and individuals, such as healthy snacks, toiletries, socks, and backpacks.

Learn more by emailing Nina Taggart, Volunteer Services Coordinator, at NTaggart@CatholicCharitiesSF.org or 415-972-1246 or visiting the volunteer page at www.CatholicCharitiesSF.org.
