Third Sunday of Easter

May 5, 2019

Acts 5:27-32, 40-41; Psalm: 30;
Revelation 5:11-14; John 21:1-19

LIFELONG SERVICE

"I am going fishing." What an announcement! If asked who made it, and not told it was a Bible quote, we might guess "Grandpa" or "Uncle Fred," or admit, "I said that last summer!" But it is a Bible quote, from today's Gospel. The person who said it also once declared, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Yes, it's Peter! So today's announcement seems quite the comedown. Last Sunday Jesus said, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." But Peter seems determined to return to his pre-apostolic occupation, until Jesus intervenes, making Peter's later announcement deeper, "Lord, you know that I love you," and Peter's apostolic calling clearer, "Tend my sheep." Peter does so. Acts presents the consequences: Peter declares, "We must obey God rather than men." As Revelation proclaims, "Worthy is the Lamb"—to receive Peter's lifelong service, and ours.

Questions of the Week:

When we have hurt another, even after we have asked for and received forgiveness, there is often a period of time when we are more careful about what we say and how we act around the person we have hurt. In today's Gospel, in the dialogue between Jesus and Peter, we hear how the relationship broken by Peter's denial of Jesus is healed.

What does Jesus ask Simon Peter? How many times does Jesus ask this question?

What does Jesus say after Peter answers each of his questions?

In these words, what reassurance is Jesus giving that their relationship has been restored?

Thank you to my Mater Dolorosa family of Fr. Roland, Deacon Alex, Colleen, the Knights of Columbus, St. Vincent de Paul, Second Harvest, Eucharistic Ministers, The MD Parish Council, Legion of Mary, parishioners and YMI for the honor of being named as the Parishioner of the Year. One of the cornerstones for the Knights of Columbus is charity. Please consider participating in any one of them. The spiritual rewards are wonderful and enlightening.
