THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

June 16, 2019

Proverbs 8:22-31; Psalm: 8;
Romans 5:1-15; John 16:12-15

THIS IS THE HOLY TRINITY

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today's readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

First Reading: The wisdom of God played on the surface of God's earth, finding delight in the human race

Psalm: O Lord, our God, how wonderful you name in all the earth!

Second Reading: Romans 5:1-15

Gospel: The Spirit of truth will guide you to all truth

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

Now that school and classes are ending, families can enjoy exploring the Faith on their own. Summer can be a fun time to study saints you may not know well, especially when their feast days fall during these months. Summer saints include: St. Junipero Serra, July 1. "Always forward, never back," was the motto of this saint. Born in Spain in 713, St. Junipero spent his early life as a student and then as a Franciscan professor. He left academics to become a missionary. Despite enduring brutal conditions, he founded missions throughout California and baptized more than 6,000 people and confirmed 5,000. St. Mary Magdalene, July 22. Often misidentified as a woman of ill repute, Mary Magdalene was a devoted friend and financial backer of Jesus and his Apostles. She bravely stood at the foot of the Cross with Jesus' Mother. Mary was honored as the first to whom the Resurrection was revealed, making her the "Apostle to the Apostles." St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, August 9. Edith Stein, born Jewish, was a brilliant atheist intellectual in Germany in the early 1900s, but converted to Catholicism after studying St. Teresa of Avila and became a Carmelite. Although her order tried to shelter her from the Nazis, St. Teresa was eventually rounded up and executed at Auschwitz in 1942.

When you go to Mass, don't forget to take your "Passport to Heaven" with you as you travel and take pictures at the churches you visit and send them to cff@mdssf.org. The children will share the pictures and stories when we have our beginning of the school year Mass in October. To find Mass times while you are traveling, go to www.masstimes.org. For more information about our Faith Formation Program, please contact Felisa Cepeda at 650-583-4131 x2.

SACRAMENTAL CLASS REMINDERS:

2018-2019 certificates for First Holy Communion and Confirmation can be picked up in the CFF office on or after June 16. Don't forget, those families whose children will be preparing for First Communion and Confirmation 2019-2020 are required to attend the CFF teaching Mass on Tuesdays at 6pm.

Questions of the Week:

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus makes a promise to his disciples. What does Jesus promise to his disciples?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Interested in learning more about the Catholic faith? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is for adults, 18 years and older, who are interested in becoming members of the Catholic Church. RCIA meets weekly from September through Pentecost. During this period of time candidates learn about Jesus Christ and his invitation to be a disciple through membership and participation in the life of His Church. A time of discernment, commitment, and membership are built into the program. To learn more, contact Diana Powell Powell at 650-922-3941 (leave voicemail and the best time to return your call) or via email: diana@mdssf.org.

Please keep in your prayers, the men whose names have been placed on our altar, and all your intentions for the special men in your lives today.

Happy Father's Day!

There will be a Memorial Mass for Frances Wood on Friday, June 28th at 4:00 p.m. at Mater Dolorosa Church. All are welcome to attend this memorial for Frances who served Mater Dolorosa's priests for many years with devotion and the love of her Church.

ADULT BIBLE/FAITH STUDY PROGRAM.

"The devil fears hearts on fire with love of God." (St. Catherine of Siena). We can only love God if we come to know Him, fall in love with Him, and develop a personal relationship with Him. Do you know that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is a prayer to God the Father? Do you know how our one, holy, Catholic, and apostolic Church has its roots in the Old Testament? Why is Mary the new Eve and the New Ark of the Covenant? Why this or why that? The more you know, the deeper will be your faith. Come and take part in Mater Dolorosa's Bible/Faith programs on Thursday evenings, 7-9 p.m. (Current topic: The Bible Timeline); or Saturday mornings, 9-11 a.m. (Current topic: The Biblical Roots of the Blessed Virgin Mary). Sessions are in the Parish Center Multipurpose room. No need to register, just show up!

LIVING A CONTEMPLATIVE LIFE

There will be a workshop on "Living a Contemplative Life" with Fr. Vito Perrone, COSJ on Saturday, June 29, 2019, 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Mater Dolorosa Church and parish hall. If you see yourself always on the go, multi-tasking as a parent, husband or wife, career person, or a student, in this very fast-paced world of ours, then we would like to invite you to this free workshop and seminar. Our hope is that through the power of contemplation, we can re-focus our life and priorities, centered on God and prayer. All are welcome! The workshop starts at 9:00 am with Mass at noon (in the Extraordinary Form) and ends at around 3:00 p.m. Fr. Vito Perrone of the Contemplatives of Saint Joseph, will be the main speaker for the workshop. There will be a complimentary breakfast. Please bring brown bag lunch. For more information, contact Carmen Perlas (650) 892-5786 or see flyers for details.
