The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

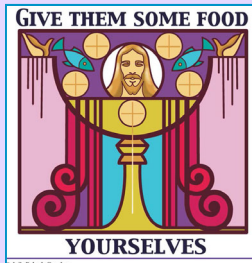

June 23, 2019

Genesis 14:18-20; Psalm: 110;
1 Corinthians 11:23-26; Luke 9:11b-17

THIS SACRED MEAL

Today we celebrate the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Each of the readings includes a blessing and a sharing of food. They remind us of the central place of meals in our lives. Each meal brings to mind other meals: the sharing of cookies and milk, pizza and beer, loaves and fishes, bread and wine.

When we prepare a meal for our family, our friends, even strangers, we always put something of ourselves into the preparation and the meal itself. The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ reminds us of what God put into the preparation for this meal that we celebrate today. We share this sacred meal and are transformed as we remember the death of Jesus and the sacrifice that nurtures our faith, sustains our lives, and supports our work. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

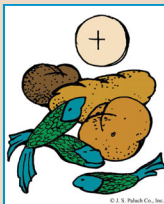

First Reading: — Melchizedek brought out bread and wine and blessed Abram.

Psalm: You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek.

Second Reading: Paul gives his description of the institution of the Eucharist.

Gospel: Jesus spoke to the crowd about the kingdom of God and then fed them with five loaves and two fish.

THE EUCHARIST

JUST AS THE BREAD, WHICH IS MADE FROM THE EARTH, WHEN GOD IS INVOKED IS NO LONGER COMMON BREAD BUT THE EUCHARIST, BOTH EARTHLY AND HEAVENLY, SO OUR BODIES, AFTER WE HAVE RECEIVED THE EUCHARIST, ARE NO LONGER CORRUPTIBLE, SINCE THEY HOLD THE HOPE OF THE RESURRECTION. —St. Irenaeus

CHILD FAITH FORMATION

This summer make chores into holy work! Giving children chores helps them to contribute to the family and become good stewards over what God gives us. When they contribute to the household by doing chores, they are contributing in an important way to the family. Make it a family affair. Assign chores to everyone in the family. Let them see that parents have chores, too. Give choices. Children can help with laundry, meal preparation, caring for pets, yard work, or house cleaning. Identify a few jobs to be done and let each person pick which one he or she wants to do. Connect chores with privileges. Set deadlines and offer rewards if chores are done or consequences if they aren't. Playtime can only happen if chores are done well, for example. Show appreciation. Earning compliments for a job well done is a great self-esteem builder. – bought to you by Partners in Faith, Helping Our Children Grow in their Catholic Faith. Sunday Mass is even more important when classes are out for the summer. Take some time and enjoy other churches around us as you make your summer plans. Get out of your regular "pew" and experience the church from a different perspective. There are Masses even when you are on vacation, visit www.parishesonline.com or www.masstimes.org to find a Mass in your destination area. Don't forget to take your "Passport to Heaven" with you as you travel. When you go to Mass, take your picture at the churches you visit and send them to cff@mdssf.org. The children will share their pictures and stories when we have our beginning of the school year Mass in October. For more information about our Faith Formation Program, please contact Felisa Cepeda at 650-583-4131 x2.

SACRAMENTAL CLASS REMINDERS:

2018-2019 certificates for First Holy Communion and Confirmation can be picked up in the CFF office on or after June 16. Don't forget, those families whose children will be preparing for First Communion and Confirmation 2019-2020 are required to attend the CFF teaching Mass on Tuesdays at 6pm. This Tuesday, June 25 we will be reviewing the Concluding rite.

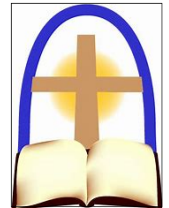

Questions of the Week:

We often use the word journey to describe our spiritual life. In this Sunday's Gospel, we learn about the kind of food we need for that journey.

- What did the disciples want to do with the large hungry crowd? What does Jesus tell the disciples to do?
- What did Jesus take to feed the entire crowd of 5,000?
- What do we learn about Jesus from this Gospel reading?

Eucharistic Minister & Reader's Meeting Wednesday, June 26th—6:00 p.m. Mater Dolorosa Parish Center

Father Roland would like to go over the general instructions/processes for both ministries. The first part of the meeting will be for Eucharistic Ministers, approximately 30-45 minutes. The second half of the meeting will be for Readers. Please Plan to Attend.

ADULT BIBLE/FAITH STUDY PROGRAM.

"The devil fears hearts on fire with love of God." (St. Catherine of Siena). We can only love God if we come to know Him, fall in love with Him, and develop a personal relationship with Him. Do you know that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is a prayer to God the Father? Do you know how our one, holy, Catholic, and apostolic Church has its roots in the Old Testament? Why is Mary the new Eve and the New Ark of the Covenant? Why this or why that? The more you know, the deeper will be your faith. Come and take part in Mater Dolorosa's Bible/Faith programs on Thursday evenings, 7-9 p.m. (Current topic: The Bible Timeline); or Saturday mornings, 9-11 a.m. (Current topic: The Biblical Roots of the Blessed Virgin Mary). Sessions are in the Parish Center Multipurpose room. No need to register, just show up!

School Supplies Drive

For this upcoming 2019-2020 school year, Mater Dolorosa Church is accepting school supplies for St. Vincent de Paul. Supplies will benefit families on the coast side. These supplies will provide the proper tools for these children to succeed in the coming school year. The collection barrels will be located in the vestibule of the church. Thank you for your generosity!

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Interested in learning more about the Catholic faith? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is for adults, 18 years and older, who are interested in becoming members of the Catholic Church. RCIA meets weekly from September through Pentecost. During this period of time candidates learn about Jesus Christ and his invitation to be a disciple through membership and participation in the life of His Church. A time of discernment, commitment, and membership are built into the program. To learn more, contact Diana Powell Powell at 650-922-3941 (leave voicemail and the best time to return your call) or via email: diana@mdssf.org.
