Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 28, 2019

Genesis 18:20-32; Psalm: 138;
Colossians 2:12-14; Luke 11:1-13

ASKING FOR HELP

The Beatitudes praise the poor in spirit. One characteristic of those who are poor in spirit is their ability to ask for help; they know when others can provide what they lack. Today's readings encourage us to practice poverty in spirit by asking God for what we need. What could be more natural than to ask God for good things? God is, after all, the inventor of goodness and the giver of all good things.

Asking God for help puts us in conversation with God. These conversations take many forms. The reading from Genesis shows Abraham bantering with God like a skilled negotiator, while Saint Paul's letter to the Colossians praises God for answering us even when we don't deserve it. In Saint Luke's Gospel, Jesus not only gives us words to use in our conversations with God (the Our Father), but also promises that God always listens to our prayers. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

First Reading: Abraham bargains with God to spare the city.

Psalm: Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me.

Second Reading: You were buried with Christ in baptism, in which you were also raised with Christ.

Gospel: Everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds.

Question of the Week:

Watching Jesus at prayer, in this Sunday's Gospel, the disciples ask him to teach them to pray. Jesus answers by teaching them the Lord's Prayer. Then Jesus tells two parables on prayer, the first reminding us to always continue to pray, and the second reminding us to always pray for the right things. What do we mean when we pray for God's kingdom to come?

What part of the Our Father is your favorite? Why? What point is Jesus making through the parable in this Sunday's Gospel?
