Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 11, 2019

Wisdom 18:6-9; Psalm: 33;
Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19; Luke 12:32-48

FAITH AND HOPE

Faith and hope are closely united in today's readings. The Israelites knew when the Passover was coming, and so were not in fear, but had faith and courage, "putting into effect with one accord the divine institution." In this we can see a foretelling of the Eucharist that we celebrate according to Christ's command, "Do this in memory of me."

We see that Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, and Jacob died in faith, although they did not see fulfillment of the promise. We live in hope that our faith will be fulfilled every time we celebrate this sacrament. We too are not to be afraid, but to have hope that our faith will be fulfilled in the coming of Christ.

First Reading: Your ancestors waited in faith and courage for God's promised summons!

Psalm: Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Second Reading: By faith Abraham sojourned in the promised land.

Gospel: You do not know the day nor the hour when the Son of Man will appear.

WHY DO
CATHOLICS...?

Why do Catholics call Mary "the Mother of the Church"?

Before he died, Jesus gave us his mother to be our mother. Looking down from the cross, Jesus saw Mary and St. John, and said, "Woman, behold, your son..." and to John, "Behold your mother" (John 19:26-27). Mary's motherhood for us is spiritual, yet very real. From the birth of the Church at Pentecost until her Assumption into Heaven, Mary nurtured and accompanied the early Church.

She continues to support us today from her place in Heaven by her prayers.
